Splash Of Colours

SYMPHONY 2019

Aditi Singh Sharma with JMC girls

Dr. Swati Pal, Principal, Janki Devi Memorial College

Life is colourful and the most exciting phase of this colourful journey is 'teenage' amalgamated with 'College life'. College life spiced with college fests gives us the most memorable moments that are forever. It's the most exciting time that every college student waits for every year. "SYMPHONY 2019" of Janki Devi Memorial College, gave the similar indelible three days that will always have a mark in the hearts of the young ones.

Started with the photo exhibition, street plays and a number of other competitions on the first day, the extravaganza had splendid dance performances in Western and folk dance competitions as well. There were other competitions like debate and jingle writing which got a handsome number registrations across the different colleges all over Delhi.

The third day was the most awaited one with all pomp and show. Like every year, the closing day had a gorgeous celebrity in the house. This year it was 'Aditi Singh Sharma', who added spark to the evening and made it an unforgettable experience for all. The stage was set on fire with her moves and filled love in the air with her alluring voice. This was the most captivating moment of the three-day fest that everyone enjoyed and cherished.

With the ending of 'SYMPHONY 2019' everyone had a bunch of memories in their hearts and hope in their eyes that next year will have more colours of life and joy, making it a lifetime event. For the students, these are the golden days that will never come back and that's the reason they live in the moment and make the best of it.

On the occasion, Dr. Swati Pal Principal Janki Devi Memorial College, said, "Symphony 2019 had everything that the theme indicates. It had colours, harmony, a positive spirit, and joy that helped in building a sense of unity and equality among diverse students, management and administration. Such events not only enhance the confidence level of students, but also develops management and crisis handling skills. In total, it's an engaging and satisfying space."

Kick-starting the Delhi University's much-awaited fest season, the college of Janki Devi Memorial College had quite a host of their central cultural fest. Symphony, also marked with activities, competitions, great food and a star performance perfect for the fest for the music, there was no match to be made as the day-long fest. There's a smorgasbord of all things cool that make Symphony the perfect one-stop party!

Henceforth from the college, made the most of an old jeep parked on campus to use for a few shows and was clicked by us in the process too. "I think if you're dressing up like this, you should dance to music. And, since everyone requires some motivation to come to parties on such a night, I decided to dance, which I was sure to do, on such a night. This old jeep provided a great atmosphere and, and we clicked some really great pictures," she said.

A NIGHT LIT WITH STARS, PARTY SONGS

To be in complete sync with a rockstar performance and, as the first line of the event, there was a lot going on the night of the college. The star performance for the night was singer Aditi Singh Sharma, who, although was a bit late for her act, still managed to get the crowd to groove to her tunes. One of the best songs of the night, of the night as they channelled "Aditi Singh" and the party immediately started off with the DJ on the track. "It is a joy to have two new talents in the evening. I am so happy to be here! I am so happy to have you all here, you all are my best friends to party with in the 'Symphony'." shared Sharma, as she went to sing her song as DJ's DJ, Mani Tom (Siddharth), a student of Public Works and Tu. Sharma. The audience it sounded like the stage was lit the night sky as they lit up their flashlights while the singer continued to be in the air for other shows. "You guys have always given me so much love. I am a huge fan of you all. I am a DJ, in public show you have the night sky," said Sharma. The singer also thanked her staff by doing a performance on campus and gave a shout-out to the photographers who remembered.

STREET PLAY FOR THE WIN

"I had all these shows at the fest were packed with over 30 activities, including music, dance and theatre. It was the street play competition that won the hearts of students with its powerful acting, performances, great scripts and scenes that from an important social issue. Shree Narayan from Institute of Home Economics, Faculty from Delhi Technological University and Kirti Kalia from Janki Devi Memorial College secured the first, second and third position. And, the best actor award went to Shree Chitra, Poo and Narain Roy. The best actress award went to Shree Anshika. The Drama Society secured the best script award with their play 'The Old Man' that garnered much applause from the audience."

INFLUENCIN' ON POINT

For anyone who's a fan of social media, it's a time to bring out your fashion best, and work with the new crop of fashion influencers paying close attention to how it looks on a screen. It's a great time to be a fashion influencer, and even better to be a fashion influencer who is a part of the fashion show. Pransh Mittal, a third-year student of DCoin

Symphony 2019 is everything that its theme indicates 'Go catch a rainbow' - it has colour, to many, a positive spirit. It has built a sense of unity and equality among diverse students and the talent of the students is like the pot of gold at the end of rainbow. It has gladdened everyone. The fest season in DU has officially started with Symphony, the annual cultural festival of Janki Devi Memorial College. Singer Aditi Singh Sharma, known for songs like Dhoom Machale from Dhoom 3, Offo from 2 States and more, performed on the last day of the fest at college's jam-packed amphitheatre. With the students screaming Aditi's name and requesting songs, the singer took them on a musical journey as she concluded the fest.

ALL ARTISTES SHOULD PERFORM AT JDMC ONCE: ADITI

The singer, who began her performance with Dhoom Machale, said, "You guys are lovely, thank you for calling us here," she said before crooning songs like Dilli Dilli, Pehla Nasha and Salt Salt. It wasn't just students who were having fun at the fest, Principal

THIS YEAR, THE ROCK SHOW WAS REALLY GOOD. IT WAS ALSO NEW FOR US BECAUSE IT HAD A FEMALE ARTISTE THIS TIME

- Shubhangi Seth, President, Students' Union

Swati Pal was also seen dancing with the students and faculty. "Meri toh shaam karni gayi kyunki principal ma'am bhi dance kar rahi hai," she said.

Before concluding her performance, she added, "You guys are such a great audience. I think all the artistes should come and perform at JDMC once."

IT WAS A GOOD CHANGE THIS YEAR: STUDENTS

The students had a gala time singing and dancing with the singer, and also welcomed the change that a female artiste performed at the college. In the last few years, artistes like Guru Randhawa, Indeeep Bakshi have performed at the fest, so when a female singer performed, it was a good change for many. Shubhangi Seth, President, Students' Union, said, "This year, the rock show was really good. It was also new for us because it had a female artiste this time."

Pooja, a third-year student of History (Hons) added, "It was an amazing event. We enjoyed all her songs. It was fun to dance along with her."

To conclude, the principal reminded the students that she would like to see the same spirit dance in classrooms as well. "I haven't seen this much excitement in the college for a long time now. I hope it will be the same next week as well (referring to classes)," she said.
