Name of the organizer (s):	Dr Bijoyata Yonzon, TIC & Association-in-charges: Ms. Deepti Sethi, Ms. Richika Rana & Mr. Abhinub Kumar.
Type of event	Seminar
Objectives of the event:	The Economics department organised a seminar to provide the students with knowledge of career opportunities in stock market

The Economics Department of Janki Devi Memorial College, University of Delhi organised a seminar on Careers on Opportunities in Stock Market on February 6, 2024 in Room no 67. The event was attended by Dr. Bijoyata Yonzon, TIC, Economics Department, JDMC; Association-in-Charges Ms. Deepti Sethi and Ms. Richika Rana and all the other faculty members.

The seminar began at 11 am in the morning. Minal Bansal, Vice President, Economics department introduced the honourable speakers Mr. Anupam Dixit and Mr. Pullock Bhattacharji, followed by their felicitation by Charvi Suri, President, Economics department.

Mr. Pullock started interacting with students alongside discussing economic issues he faced during his college days. He threw light on various terminologies related to stock market and explained how BSE Mumbai is the barometer of the economy and how some myths regarding stock market influence an individual's decision to invest in stock market. He made the session interactive by discussing various prominent personalities and their net worth.

To add a feather in the cap, Mr. Anupam added to our knowledge the various career opportunities one can pursue in the stock market. He also emphasised on the various types of stock markets and he ended his session by interacting with students and solving their doubts efficiently. Swati Ma'am then explained in detail about the course that is being offered by the Economics Department in collaboration with BSE, which was followed by a vote of thanks.

The seminar was attended by 121 students. The insightful seminar was put to an end successfully.
