

Report on Pratibha: Centre for Foundation Classes, 2019-2020

Janki Devi Memorial College (JDMC), University of Delhi, under Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) has successfully completed the third batch of Pratibha: Centre for foundation classes (competitive exams) under the convenorship of Md. Zubeer Ahmed and four co-conveners; Ms. Debahuti Brahmachari, Mr Ahirrao Dinesh Bharat, Md. Khursheed Alam and Raju Keshari. Those students who aim to clear the various competitive exams conducted by UPSC, State Public Service Commission etc. opted for these classes. The primary objective of these foundation classes were to provide the basic knowledge about important topics from examination point of view, and orient the students to explore further on their own. The topics for lectures were selected keeping in mind the general studies component of various competitive exams.

The classes were open for all bonafide students and ex-students of the University of Delhi. The classes began on 4th August 2019, whereby 118 students registered for the classes. The course was divided into 81 modules covering the broad areas of History, Economics, Political Science, Sociology, English, Mathematics, Geography, Science & Technology, Current Affairs, Essay writing and components of Personality test. The classes were taken by the successful candidates in the Civil Services exam, faculties from various departments of the college and experts from outside. Three modules of two hours each were discussed on every Sunday. Owing to the outbreak of Covid-19 pandemic, total 15 out of 81 lectures were delivered in online mode. One mock test was held to assess students' learning and performance. The top three positions received merit certificates and cash prizes.
