It was a party like no other when the biggest fresher's bash – HT Fresh On Campus reached Janki Devi Memorial College (JDMC) recently. The enthusiastic crowd and talented participants upped the fun quotient of the competitive rounds that followed. Students took to social media to share selfies and videos, using the hashtag, #HTFreshOnCampus.

A ramp walk by more than 30 college divas made way for the talent round that saw the shortlisted candidates taking to the stage to sing or show their dance moves.

Pongkey Rangsong won after impressing the jury with her mesmerising dance routine, and bagged the Ms Fresh on Campus as well as Diva of the College title. Himanshi Chaudhary and Tanisha Jain were declared the first and second runners up. The winners were rewarded with entry passes for the opening ceremony of the biggest neighbourhood football tournament in Delhi-NCR, SARE Homes HT GIFA.

Nritya, the western dance society of JDMC, also gave a performance. Keeping the audience entertained with his wit was emcee Kanishk Tyagi. The event concluded with a jam session by DJ Gaurav Chawla and DJ Sumit Sethi.
