Activity: Indo-Argentina Relations Poster Making Competition

Organised by: Student's Union

STUDENTS' UNION of Janki Devi Memorial College, organized the "Indo-Argentina Relations Poster Making Competition" to foster creativity and celebrate the strong bilateral ties between India and Argentina on July 24, 2023, at 12:00 P.M, aiming to highlight the cultural, economic, and diplomatic connections between the two nations. The competition was supervised by, Ms. Pouriangthanliu, Dr. Vijay Kumar Badetia, Dr. Akansha Kumar [The Staff Advisors], Dr. Debahuti Brahmachari [G20 Faculty Coordinator], Prof. Poonam Bewtra [G20 Nodal Officer], Prof. Payal Nagpal [IQAC Coordinator], in the assistance of our Principal, Prof. Swati Pal. The competition, held virtually, saw active participation from 9 talented individuals who showcased their artistic skills and enthusiasm. Participants were given the task to create visually captivating posters that embodied the essence of this relationship. All submissions were assessed based on their creativity, relevance to the theme, artistic execution, and overall impact. After a thorough evaluation, the panel declared a winner and a runner-up. Both of them respectively won a sum of Rs. 1000 and 500 only. The winner's poster was also displayed in the College Student Notice Board beside the committee room. The details are as follows:

Winners: - First Prize: Samriddhi Singh 2nd Year, Political Science - Second Prize: Anshu 3rd Year, Department of Mathematics

The event not only showcased the participants' artistic abilities but also increased awareness about the historical and contemporary ties between the two nations

- Activity: Awareness about Road Traffic Accidents and the Importance of Wearing Helmets

Organised by: Students Union

STUDENTS' UNION of Janki Devi Memorial College, organized a gathering dedicated to raising awareness about 'Road Traffic accidents and the Importance of wearing Helmets' in commemoration of Maxillofacial Surgery Day on August 25, 2023, at 11:45 A.M. in the College Committee Room. The highlights of the event included an insightful conversation by Dr. Akansha Kumar, followed by an engaging presentation, and informative videos addressing road safety. Additionally, Dr. Vijay Kumar Batedia shared valuable safety tips concerning road usage and emphasized the significance of wearing helmets. His practical insights provided attendees with actionable steps to enhance road safety. The event left a positive impact on the students. The discussions, presentations, and expert advice collectively succeeded in sensitizing the audience to the critical issue of road safety and motivated them to prioritize wearing helmets for their own protection.

Activity: Human Chain Event

Organised by: NSS unit with Electoral Literacy Club

The NSS unit of JDMC (Janki Devi Memorial College) organised a Human Chain event on 7th October 2023 at 12 PM in College Premises to spread awareness on Electoral Literacy Club in context of learning the importance of democracy and voting. NSS Programme officer Dr. Rajinder Kumar and 48 NSS Volunteers actively participated in the human chain event to showcase the value of one vote as My Vote My Right . My Vote is my Future- Power of One Vote to reiterate the importance of every vote through creative expression.

Objective- To be an integral part of democracy, and it is necessary for people to have a voice. Everyone has the right to vote.

Learning Outcomes - Voting gives citizens a voice and an opportunity to participate in the democratic process. Voting also allows everyone to contribute to the shared democracy and make the government more representative of the people.

Activity: Donation drive for Kullu, Himachal Pradesh
Organised by: WDC and the Centre for Gender Equity Studies

WDC and The Centre for Gender Equity Studies organised a donation drive over the month of September 2023 for the underprivileged communities of Kullu, a picturesque district in Himachal Pradesh, India. The drive was aimed at collecting essential items which were sent to Mahila Sahityakar Sanstha on 22 November 2023, the nodal centre for distribution among affected areas near Kullu. Staff and students from various departments of the college enthusiastically participated in the drive, generously contributing essential items. The WDC team tirelessly coordinated the collection, ensuring that the donations were properly sorted, packed, and transported to Kullu. The drive was a resounding success, garnering a significant amount of donations that will undoubtedly provide much-needed relief to the people of Kullu. The WDC's initiative exemplifies the spirit of giving and compassion that lies at the heart of community service

Activity: Seminar on Justice, Equality and Dignity

Organised by: The Centre for Universal Values and Ethics

The Centre for Universal Values and Ethics (Avani, The Environment Club: Chetna, The Spiritual Consciousness Cell and Gandhi Study Circle) organised a seminar on the theme “Justice , Equality and Dignity” under the Jan Bhagidari Program, on September 13 at 10 am in the Seminar Room of Janki Devi Memorial College, University of Delhi. The event commenced with welcoming the dignitaries, Dr. Bezwada Wilson, National Convenor of Safai Karmachari Andolan and Magsaysay Award Winner, and Ms. Ritu Rao, a Research Scholar in TERI School of Advanced Studies. The guests were presented potted plants as a token of gratitude by the Centre Director, Dr. Purna Arora. Dr. Wilson addressed the audience first and shared his views on equality as a fundamental value necessary for humans in all walks of life. He shared a personal anecdote where he was barred from entering a village because of being “untouchable” and how it inspired him to raise his voice against these atrocities . At last, he urged the students to do away with the superiority syndrome and make equality and justice the utmost priority in their life. Ms. Rao, then enlightened the audience on how environmental crises are connected to social crises. She shared her views on the predicament of Najafgarh lake which has become the most polluted drain that pollutes Yamuna. Moreover, Ms. Rao highlighted the significance of community engagement for a sustainable and better future. The session was a full house and the audience was highly impressed by the thoughts of both the speakers. The event concluded with a formal vote of thanks to the dignitaries for sharing their experience with the audience.

Activity: Seminar on “Demystifying the law: a Legal Awareness Session”

Organised by: North East Students’ Group

On 11th October 2023, the Union of North-East Students' Group of Janki Devi Memorial College organized a session on the topic 'Demystifying the law: A legal Awareness session' to create a sense of consciousness amongst students about issues involving the legal system. It was held in room no. 66, on the campus itself from 11:45 am onwards. The esteemed speaker for the session was Ms. Eliza Rumthao, a Delhi University graduate, currently serving as an External Member (ICC) for a number of organizations in and around Delhi. Ms. Rumthao with a strong legal background to her credit, has also dedicated herself to spreading awareness about issues relating to Child sexual abuse, Child labour, and Human trafficking. She has also contributed immensely to addressing matters regarding workplace harassment and child protection, by conducting workshops as well as authoring legal handbooks for the same. In her discussions, she spoke about the significance of knowing about the legitimacy behind legal literacy in everyday life. She, while talking to the audience, tried to understand the relevance held by today's youth on law and its various spectrums. This session was undoubtedly a painting of enlightenment for all the students, curious enough to know more about the subject of discussion. The highlight of the meeting, however, was when she reverted to her firsthand experiences as a mediator to construe the issues on hand as simply as possible, making it easier for those present to grasp.

By the end of the Seminar, Ms. Rumthao discussed the Constitution of India and the legal provisions structured for the Protection of Women in the Indian Penal Code, which was later circulated amongst all.

Activity: Internship Inauguration Ceremony: Safe and Secure Public Transport in Delhi powered by Urban Catalysts

Organised by: Department of Sociology

On 16 of January 2024, the Department of Sociology held an inaugural session for internship program on Safe and Secure Public Transport in Delhi, a collaborative initiative between Janki Devi Memorial College and Urban Catalysts. Shradha Gupta, Coordinator, Urban Catalyst, shed light on the organisation's mission and expertise in creating inclusive and sustainable cities. She then elaborated on the goals and expectations of the internship program. Principal, Professor Swati Pal, encouraged and wished the students and also emphasized on the importance of public transportation in shaping a thriving city and commended our decision to be a part of this transformative project.

Activity: Workshop on “Gender Rights and Laws: with Special Reference to Sexual Harassment at the Workplace”

Organised by: Department of Sociology

The Department of Sociology hosted a workshop on the topic ‘Gender Rights and Laws: with Special Reference to Sexual Harassment at the Workplace’. The resource person for the session was Ms. Gayatri Sharma, a lawyer, gender and social justice adviser. Ms Sharma started the session by showing data indicating how significantly crime against women had escalated. She pointed out how the data helps us recognize that harassment occurs in both the public and private sphere. Cases of harassment that occurs in the public are observed, recognized, and reported, whereas cases in the private sphere are not even questioned. She also delves in to discuss on marital rape as a point to discuss the issue of consent, and dimensions that marginalizes women and limit their independence. Webinars like this leave a great impact on people to think about and it is no doubt that we anticipate more of such gender conscious workshops in future.

Activity: Seminar on “Role of Constitutional Law in Nation Development

Organised by: Department of Political Science

On 28th of November, Department of Political Science of Janki Devi Memorial College under the aegis of IQAC organized a seminar on “Role of Indian Constitutional Law in National Development.” The invited speakers were Dr. Sourav Mandal (Associate Professor at OP Jindal Global University) and Mr. Vinod Madaan (Deputy General Manager at OP Jindal Global University).

The seminar commenced by highlighting the importance of Constitution Day and extending heartfelt gratitude to the Principal and TIC for conducting such impactful seminars in the college. The token of appreciation was provided to both the speakers. In return, most of the teachers of the department were felicitated by the speakers. The expertise of Dr. Sourav Mandal was evident as he began by providing insightful experiences on the constitution of our country. He highlighted the fact that the people are the only beneficiaries of Constitution of India. He traced the vital role of Cold War scenario and the bipolar world in the formation of constitution of our country. He concluded by emphasizing that law is facially neutral. With this the floor was opened for questions where students participated enthusiastically.

Another speaker, Mr Vinod Madaan laid out the procedure regarding the higher studies of the students. He also provided information regarding the process through which the admission to the OP Jindal University, Sonipat can be taken. This enlightening seminar came to an end with the vote of thanks by the Treasurer Shahida Mushtaq

LEARNING OUTCOMES: Students acquired skills by understanding the principles of constitutional law in context of national development. The seminar aimed to equip attendees with knowledge about key constitutional provisions related to development policies, highlighting their impact on infrastructure, governance, and socio-economic progress. Additionally, students gained an enhanced understanding of the legal mechanisms that facilitate inclusive and sustainable development. Students learned about contributing to informed discourse and effective decision-making in this crucial domain.

Activity: Seminar on “Law, State and Society: Examining Constitutional Provisions of Equal Opportunity”

Organised by: Department of Political Science

On 3rd of October, Department of Political Science in collaboration with Centre for the Study of Disability Inclusion under the aegis of IQAC organised a lecture on the topic ‘Law, State and Society: Examining Constitutional provisions of equal opportunity. The invited speaker was N.Annavaram, Assistant Professor (Department of Sociology) University of Hyderabad, Hyderabad. This seminar was attended by 71 students of the department. The event began with the introduction of the speaker by Dr. Md Zubeer Ahmed, Director, CSDI. He introduced Centre for the Study of Disability Inclusion which is the new IQAC centre commenced in March with 11 faculties working in it with the focus on Sensatisation, Training, Outreach and Reseach. N.Annavaram Sir addressed the audience by siting the difference between rites and rights. Rites are embodied in religion to claim for one’s share where first share is of divine god, second for the priest, third is to the community and what is left is one’s own share. He highlighted that with hunger of power and greedy nature of human, human state emerged as acompromise where Rights were the part of contract between people and state. He emphasized that rights are the power of constitution as limit the absolute power of state. With this the floor was opened for questions where the students and faculty members participated enthusiastically. This enriching and informative lecture came to an end with the presentation of vote of thanks by the President Mehak Gupta and felicitation of the guests by Dr. Md.Zubeer Ahmed.

LEARNING OUTCOMES: It aimed to foster fairness and inclusivity by prohibiting discrimination and increasing awareness of individual rights. They gained insights into constitutional provisions that safeguard and promote equal opportunities, fostering appreciation for the principles of justice and fairness enshrined in the constitution. The seminar empowered participants to critically analyze and interpret relevant constitutional articles, enhancing their legal reasoning skills.

Activity: Lecture on “Contemporary Gandhian Thoughts”

Organised by: Department of History

On the occasion of the Martyrs' Day on January 30, 2024 Prof. Salil Misra, faculty of the Department of the History, School of Liberal Studies, Ambedkar University, Delhi delivered a talk on the topic Contemporaneity of Gandhian Thought. The lecture, held on the death anniversary of Gandhi, offered a profound exploration of his enduring relevance in modern times. Professor Misra began by contextualizing Gandhi's philosophy within the early 20th century struggle for Indian independence. He emphasized Gandhi's innovative strategies of non-violence and civil disobedience, highlighting how these principles not only galvanized the Indian masses but also inspired global movements for civil rights and social justice. Misra argued that Gandhi's emphasis on ethical politics and personal integrity remains profoundly relevant in today's world, where political corruption and moral crises are prevalent. The speaker delved into specific aspects of Gandhi's thought that resonate with contemporary issues. He discussed Gandhi's ideas on sustainability and self-reliance, which align closely with today's environmental movements advocating for sustainable living and local economies.

Prof. Misra pointed out that Gandhi's vision of Sarvodaya (welfare for all) can inform current debates on social equity and inclusive development. Further, Professor Misra explored Gandhi's views on communal harmony and the importance of dialogue in resolving conflicts. In an era marked by increasing polarization and violence, Gandhi's commitment to peace and his belief in the power of non-violent resistance provide valuable lessons for addressing contemporary social and political challenges. The lecture concluded with an engaging Q&A session, where students and attendees posed questions about applying Gandhi's principles in various modern contexts. Professor Misra encouraged the audience to critically engage with Gandhi's ideas, adapting them creatively to address today's complex issues. Overall, Professor Salil Misra's lecture underscored Mahatma Gandhi's timeless relevance, inspiring the audience to reflect on how Gandhi's ideals can be reinterpreted and applied to contemporary societal problems.

Activity: Discussion on “My First Vote: Role of Youth in Democracy”

Organised by: Department of HDFE in collaboration with Electoral Literacy Club

The Department of Human Development and Family Empowerment in collaboration with Electoral Literacy Club under the aegis of IQAC and Mera Pehla Vote Desh ke liye Campaign organized a discussion on ‘My First Vote: Role of Youth in Democracy’ on 12th March, 2024.

The discussion highlighted various aspects surrounding the significance of voting. Foremost among the topics discussed was the pivotal role of obtaining a voter ID, seen as the crucial initiation into exercising one's democratic rights. Participants underscored the necessity of this initial step, recognizing it as the gateway to active participation in the democratic process. Additionally, the students discussed the strong feeling of civic duty and involvement that comes with voting. They agreed that voting is more than just a right—it is a crucial responsibility in supporting democracy. They all believed that each vote represents a person's voice and position, helping to shape the overall decisions made by the community and government. In a society where young people's voices are becoming more important, students acknowledged, how powerful they can be together in making social and political changes happen. They strongly emphasized the need for being well-informed, involved, and taking action in elections. They were very passionate about the idea that by being actively involved, they could make a big difference in their communities and country, leaving a lasting impact on how things are done politically and socially.
