

“Career tracks in Journalism”

The Commerce Department of Janki Devi Memorial College in association with Jio Institution learning for life organized a seminar on the topic "Career tracks in journalism" on 18th March 2023(Saturday) 12 pm onwards.

The speaker of the session was Dr. Harsh Taneja , who is a programme mentor in Jio Institution Mumbai and also an associate professor college of media University of Illinois Urbana Champaign, USA.

The session was arranged to equip students with and understanding of career in journalism and clearing their doubts.

The objective of the seminar was to tell students that studying journalism opens doors to many careers where creativity, writing, communication and research skills are invaluable. Also, students were introduced to master courses of journalism abroad.

The session commenced with a warm welcome of the speaker and his team by the team. Dr. Harsh Taneja shared his personal experience. He told students how he was always interested in this field and how he built his career in journalism.

The main aim of the session was to make students aware of the less-known benefits of pursuing journalism . Students who are interested in this field were encouraged to pursue their dream. The speaker and their team also felicitated Ms. Amita Yadav on behalf of Ms. Saroj Gupta Ma'am (The Head of Commerce Union) and thanked the organizers for inviting them.

It was an extremely fruitful session which helped in deeper understanding of the topic and the various aspects of it. All the queries were handled sincerely by our esteemed speakers, during the question hour which succeeded the panel discussion and was moderated by Prof. Chanchal Chopra Ma'am, the teacher-in-charge of the Department of Commerce. The session ended with a vote of thanks to the speakers along with the audience. Around 150 students attended the session, pictures were also taken which are attached later in the document.
