Brief Report :

The Economics Department of Janki Devi Memorial College, University of Delhi (under the aegis of IQAC), in association with Drishti IAS, organised a seminar on the topic Civil Services as Career on 27 February, 2024 in room no. 67.

The event commenced at 11:30 a.m. with a welcome address by Minal Bansal, Vice President. The event was attended by Dr. Bijoyata Yonzon, TIC, Economics Department, JDMC; Association-inCharges Ms. Deepti Sethi, Mr.Abhinub Kumar and Ms. Richika Rana and all the other faculty members. The guest speakers were Mr. Prashant Sharma and Mr. Abhishek Gautam.

With a warm introduction, she introduced the guests of honour. Following it, the speakers were felicitated by Charvi, President, Economics Department. The first speaker for the lecture was Mr. Prashant Sharma who invigorated the students to consider various aspects of skill enhancement and encouraged them to deliberate upon the desirable qualities of a responsible position holder. He presented the audience a radical approach towards emotional dealings and wove a connection of economic terms with philosophical perceptions.

The discussion was then taken over by Mr. Abhishek Gautam, also an alumnus of Delhi School of Economics, University of Delhi. With his informed experience, he focussed on career opportunities extended through government and non-governmental roles. The speaker initiated a thorough analysis of content in focus while reading a newspaper. While doing so, he discussed a wide range of topics and themes associated with civil service examination.

The speakers further interacted with the students via a Q&A round in which all queries of the students were addressed effectively. The interactive session came to a successful conclusion with a vote of thanks by Tanvi Arora, General Secretary. The seminar was attended by 168 students.
