TIME : 11:30 am onwards

DATE : 28th NOVEMBER 2023

VENUE : SEMINAR ROOM

DESCRIPTION: On 28th of November, Department of Political Science of Janki Devi Memorial College under the aegis of IQAC organized a seminar on “Role of Indian Constitutional Law in National Development.” The invited speakers were Dr. Sourav Mandal(Associate Professor at OP Jindal Global University) and Mr. Vinod Madaan(Deputy General Manager at OP Jindal Global University).

The seminar commenced by highlighting the importance of Constitution Day and extending heartfelt gratitude to the Principal and TIC for conducting such impactful seminars in the college. The token of appreciation was provided to both the speakers. In return, most of the teachers of the department were felicitated by the speakers. The expertise of Dr. Sourav Mandal was evident as he began by providing insightful experiences on the constitution of our country. He highlighted the fact that the people are the only beneficiaries of Constitution of India. He traced the vital role of Cold War scenario and the bipolar world in the formation of constitution of our country. He concluded by emphasizing that law is facially neutral. With this the floor was opened for questions where students participated enthusiastically.

Another speaker, Mr Vinod Madaan laid out the procedure regarding the higher studies of the students. He also provided information regarding the process through which the admission to the OP Jindal University, Sonipat can be taken. This enlightening seminar came to an end with the vote of thanks by the Treasurer Shahida Mushtaq.

LEARNING OUTCOMES: Students acquired skills by understanding the principles of constitutional law in context of national development. The seminar aimed to equip attendees with knowledge about key constitutional provisions related to development policies, highlighting their impact on infrastructure, governance, and socio-economic progress. Additionally, students gained an enhanced understanding of the legal mechanisms that facilitate inclusive and sustainable development. Students learned about contributing to informed discourse and effective decision-making in this crucial domain.
