Anupam Haat at Jyotsana'25

Name of the event:	Anupam Haat at Jyotsana'25 under Project Anupam
Name of the organizer:	Project Anupam
Type of event:	Intra-College
Objectives of the event:	The aim of organizing Anupam Haat was to create a platform for students or creators to showcase their skills and creativity and to help them in building a wide network and to give them business exposure. It also aimed to support the student led initiatives.

Brief Report

Project Anupam, under the Incubation Program of Janki Devi Memorial College organized Anupam Haat under Project Anupam for Jyotsna'25 on 16th October 2025, from 12:00 - 05:00 pm in College Campus near Auditorium with 20 creators. The event witnessed an impressive footfall of over 600 students and visitors throughout the day. The stalls exhibited products like, crochet products, handmade candles, jewelry items, scrunchies, food items, and key chains, novels, resin art etc. The event attracted students, faculty, and visitors from college. The faculty members visited the stalls and appreciated student's creativity. Many stalls sold out quickly. The stalls had exciting and fun games that attracted the students and engaged them in a very good manner. The faculty also enjoyed the live demonstration arranged by the students and creators at Anupam Haat.

Feedback

The event at Anupam Haat was a huge success and went very well and got positive feedback from the visitors. A lot of people became a part of the event and enjoyed visiting the stalls. All the hard work and creativity was appreciated by everyone who visited the event. The teachers also praise the creativity of students' and the hard work done by the organizing team. One of the major feedback was to provide enough carry bags for customers as some stalls sold out quickly, but overall it was a memorable experience.

Name and affiliation of the resource person	Ms. Ramanpreet Kaur, Counselling Psychologist

Brief Report

On 15th October 2025, The Incubation Program of Janki Devi Memorial College hosted an engaging seminar on "The Psychology Of Self Image in Beauty and Business" from 12:00 p.m. to 1:00 p.m. in Room No. 14. The event delivered insightful speeches by the program's president and faculty coordinator, sharing valuable insights on the Psychology of Self Image in Beauty and Business. The attendees were introduced to the concept that self-image creates a huge impact on personal and professional success by understanding the psychological biases.

The speaker explained how our internal Self-Image and the outer reality are interconnected with each other. She added how self-perception is a result of our previous experiences to modern perception of ourselves explaining the term 'Snapchat-Dysmorphia' helps in creating psychological biases like the 'Halo-Effect' in our personal lives.

In general, the seminar provided a very keen knowledge about the psychological biases exploring the psychology of Self-Image in Beauty and Business, sharing a guide that mastering authenticity can be helpful for genuine personal and professional growth.

Feedback

The event was excellent, it received very positive and honest feedback from the students. Many praised the piece of knowledge they received from the speaker. They also appreciated the relatable approach of the speaker, the emphasis on the concept of self perception and how it completely resonates with reality. The session didn't just shared a piece of knowledge but it also inspired and equipped the attendees with a new perspective of looking at their life goals with a better understanding of their self-image and leaving them more confident in their own journey.

Brief Report

The Incubation Program of Janki Devi Memorial College hosted an engaging seminar on "Artificial Intelligence in Indian Civil Services" on September 24, 2025, from 12:00 p.m. to 1:30 p.m. in Room No. 15. The event featured insightful speeches by the program's president and faculty coordinator, offering attendees a fresh perspective on navigating the civil services journey. Students were introduced to the evolving role of AI in preparation strategies, making the session both timely and highly relevant.

The speaker described the Civil Services Exam as a "marathon, not a sprint," emphasizing the need for a disciplined, long-term approach. Covering the three-stage exam process - Prelims, Mains, and Interview, they highlighted the importance of thorough preparation across a wide range of subjects, from History and Geography to Ethics. A key takeaway was the value of consistent hard work and perseverance over shortcuts, reinforcing the importance of personal discipline in achieving success.

Overall, the seminar provided both practical guidance and motivation for students aspiring to join the civil services. By combining strategic insights with real-world advice, it empowered attendees to approach their preparation with focus, determination, and a deeper understanding of how AI can enhance their learning and efficiency.

Feedback

The event was a remarkable success, receiving extremely positive feedback from students. Many appreciated the practical advice shared by the speaker, along with the emphasis on personal discipline and contributing to society. The interactive Q&A session encouraged active participation, with students asking thoughtful questions about civil service preparation, effective study strategies, and the use of AI in learning. The seminar not only provided valuable insights but also inspired students to pursue their goals with greater focus, motivation, and determination, leaving them feeling empowered and more confident about their future path.

Incubation Program
Orientation Session

Name of the event:	Orientation Session
Name of the organizer:	Incubation Program
Type of event:	Intra-college
Objectives of the event:	The orientation was organized to introduce new students to the Incubation Program, its objectives, activities, and how they could benefit from participating. The session aimed to create awareness about entrepreneurship, explain the available resources, and motivate students to take part in the program's various initiatives.

Brief Report

The Incubation Program of Janki Devi Memorial College conducted its Orientation Session on 3rd September 2025 from 12:00 p.m. to 1:00 p.m. in Room Number 14. The event began with a warm welcome by the Program Head, followed by insightful speeches from the President and Faculty Coordinator of the Incubation Program.

The session provided a comprehensive overview of the program, covering its vision, mission, and the various activities organized throughout the year, such as Anupam Haat, Skill Enhancement Training, and workshops. Students were informed about the support system available to them, including mentorship, networking opportunities, and project guidance.

The orientation was interactive and engaging, as the head team encouraged students to ask questions about entrepreneurial opportunities, the application process, and the benefits of being part of the incubation program. The faculty shared their personal experiences and motivated students to develop an entrepreneurial mindset, emphasizing that no idea is too small to start with.

The overall atmosphere was enthusiastic and welcoming, with many new students expressing excitement about participating in future events. The session concluded with a note of encouragement from the faculty, inspiring students to take initiative and actively contribute to the program.

The response was extremely positive. Students appreciated the clarity of information shared and admired the structured approach of the orientation.

Faculty members and the incubation team were happy with the active participation and engagement shown by the attendees. They highlighted the importance of spreading awareness about entrepreneurship at the college level and noted that the session was successful in generating interest among students for upcoming incubation activities.

Events Report 25-26
Incubation Program
Anupam Haat Orientation

Name of the event:	Anupam Haat
Name of the organizer:	Incubation Program
Type of event:	Intra-college
Objectives of the event:	The idea was to provide student creators with a platform to present their work and gain real-life entrepreneurial experience. It aimed to promote creativity, help students develop basic marketing and business skills, and create awareness about self-driven ventures. The event encouraged students to showcase their innovative products and learn by doing.

Brief Report

The Incubation Program of Janki Devi Memorial College organized Anupam Haat on 29th August 2025, from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. near the auditorium. The stall featured products from several student creators. The variety of products ranged from hand-made jewelry, home décor items, crochet items, paintings, and other innovative products made by students. It represented the creativity and entrepreneurial culture of the creators, as well as providing an opportunity for students to learn about their products.

The stall experienced active participation throughout. Students and professors visited in large numbers, engaged with one another, and purchased the products. The environment was lively, with visitors being curious and interested in the wide range of products offered. It helped create awareness about student ventures and provided opportunities for the creators to utilize marketing, pricing, and packaging skills.

The incubation team operated the stall smoothly, ensuring no disruption in operations for the whole day. By the end of the day, the stall had gained significant attention, while earning a revenue of Rs. 5030.

Feedback

The response was extremely positive. Students appreciated the wide variety of products on display and admired the effort that had been put in their preparation.

Faculty members also appreciated the idea and highlighted that showcasing and selling products on campus is a good method to promote an entrepreneurial mindset among students. Overall, the event was welcomed and noted as a successful move under the Skill Enhancement Training activities of the Incubation Program.
