Day Celebrated: International Day of Persons with Disabilities

Date: December 3rd, 2024

The International Day of Persons with Disabilities was celebrated on December 3, 2024, at Janki Devi Memorial College, University of Delhi, under the aegis of the IQAC. Organized by the Centre for the Study of Disability Inclusion, the event was held under the theme “Seeing by Touch – Transformative Solutions for Inclusion.” The day aimed to emphasize tactile experiences and innovative strategies to foster accessibility and inclusion for persons with disabilities.

The event was graced by the presence of Principal Professor Swati Pal, who through her participation underscored the importance of creating inclusive environments and implementing transformative solutions to ensure accessibility for all. Her active participation in the tactile game set the tone for a collaborative and engaging day. Professors from various departments and non-teaching staff also joined hands to make the event a success, reinforcing the collective commitment to inclusion.

One of the highlights of the event was an accessibility exhibition that displayed assistive tools designed for persons with visual impairments. Items such as tactile watches, braille-adapted cricket balls, and specialized chess boards were showcased, drawing attention to the practical aspects of inclusion. A student with visual impairment demonstrated the basics of Braille, offering attendees a hands-on learning experience that deepened their understanding of sensory-based accessibility.

The tactile game was a central attraction of the event. Participants were blindfolded and tasked with identifying items of daily utility and toys from a box within one minute. This engaging activity not only challenged their senses but also fostered empathy for the challenges faced by persons with visual impairments. The participant who identified the maximum number of items was declared the winner.

Interactive discussions throughout the day focused on the need for tactile signage, braille-friendly tools, and sensory-based solutions to improve inclusivity in educational institutions and public spaces. Students, faculty, and staff actively participated, with over 50% of attendees engaging in the tactile activities. Their enthusiasm reflected a genuine interest in understanding and addressing the barriers faced by persons with disabilities.

The event concluded with reflections on the transformative potential of tactile solutions in fostering inclusivity. By emphasizing the importance of accessibility and raising awareness about the lived experiences of persons with disabilities, the celebration reinforced the institution's commitment to creating a more inclusive and empathetic world.

Day Celebrated: BR Ambedkar's Birth Anniversary

Date: April 11th, 2025

Talk on “Dr. B.R. Ambedkar's Pragmatic Pursuit of Justice: AEnvisioning Inclusive India”

The NSS Unit of Janki Devi Memorial College, under the aegis of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), organised a special talk on “Dr. B.R. Ambedkar's Pragmatic Pursuit of Justice: Envisioning Inclusive India” on 11th April 2025 to commemorate the birth anniversary of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar. The session aimed to honour Ambedkar's contributions to the Indian Constitution, social justice, and equality, while inspiring students to reflect on his vision of an inclusive society.

The resource person for the event was Dr. Md. Zubeer Ahmed, Associate Professor, JDMC. In his insightful address, Dr. Ahmed explored Ambedkar's role as a jurist, social reformer, and principal architect of the Indian Constitution. He highlighted how Ambedkar's pragmatic approach to justice combined constitutional safeguards with a vision for social transformation.

The lecture examined key constitutional provisions addressing caste discrimination, women's rights, and equal opportunities, linking them to Ambedkar's lifelong struggle against social inequalities. Dr. Ahmed emphasised Ambedkar's belief in education, liberty, and fraternity as the foundations of a democratic and equitable India.

Students and faculty engaged actively during the interactive segment, posing questions on contemporary issues of inequality and the relevance of Ambedkar's ideas in present-day governance and policymaking. The discussion reinforced the importance of translating constitutional ideals into everyday social practice.

The event concluded with closing remarks from the NSS Programme Officer, Ms. Pouriangthanliu, who encouraged students to internalise Ambedkar's values in their academic and personal lives. The talk proved to be both educational and inspiring, offering a deeper understanding of the continuing significance of Ambedkar's vision for inclusive nation-building.
