

JANKI DEVI MEMORIAL COLLEGE

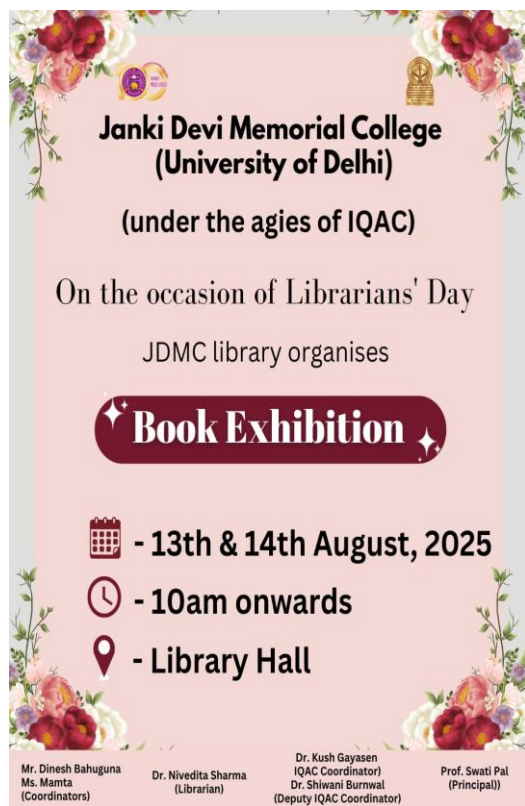

Library Book Exhibition

August 13th & 14th, 2025

Janki Devi Memorial College on August 13th and 14th, 2025, from 10 am onwards organized a two day book exhibition in the library hall. The inauguration ceremony was graced by Principal Prof. Swati Pal, setting the tone for a thrilling event that showcased a vast array of books. Students enthusiastically browsed through the stalls, discovering new titles and authors. The exhibition provided a platform for book lovers to foster their love for reading and learning.

It was a resounding success, with students having a great time exploring the world of books. The event encouraged students to explore various genres, from fiction to non-fiction, and sparked a sense of curiosity and intellectual inquiry. With Janki Devi Memorial College's strong emphasis on academics and personal growth, the book exhibition was a valuable addition to the college's calendar of events.

ANNUAL LIBRARY FESTIVAL 2025

The Library Festival of Janki Devi Memorial College under the aegis of IQAC was a remarkable event that epitomized the significance of libraries as sanctuaries of knowledge and creativity. The event commenced with lamp lighting symbolizing the enlightenment that books and learning bring in. It was accompanied by a melodious rendition of the college prayer by Sarang, which set a serene and welcoming tone for the proceedings. The dignitaries of the day were felicitated, Prof Projesh Roy, Joint Director School of Open Learning, University of Delhi, Dr Rajesh Singh, University Librarian, University of Delhi, Dr Sanjeev Kumar, University Librarian Dr B R Ambedkar College, Dr Praveen Babbar, Deputy Librarian JawaharLal Nehru University and our esteemed principal Prof Swati Pal. The event progressed with the presentation of the library report by Dr Nivedita Sharma, who meticulously highlighted the achievements, growth, and future aspirations of the library. She emphasized how the library is not just a space for books but a hub of creativity learning and innovation. The library organized various events throughout the fest, competitions including Hindi Reading, poster making and Intercollege Braille reading competition. A photography competition was also conducted for our college students. Following this, Professor Pal, the Principal of Janki Devi Memorial College, delivered the welcome address emphasizing the importance of books in shaping our thoughts, values and imagination. Prof Projesh Roy gave the presiding address and enlightened the audience upon the vast and diverse ancient body of knowledge that developed in India over thousands of years our Indian Culture and Indian Knowledge systems. He also discussed about Plagiarism and advised students for ethical writing citing examples from Upanishads, Puranas and classical literature. IKS emphasizes a holistic understanding of life and the universe. Dr Sanjeev Kumar focused on reading habits and initiatives introduced to promote learning among students and motivating students to develop consistent reading habits. Dr Rajesh Singh highlighted the Delhi University eLibrary and encouraging students to utilize it effectively. He informed the audience that DU eLibrary can be accessed anytime anywhere even through smartphones promoting digital literacy. Dr Praveen Babbar shared valuable insights about the library developments at JNU, inspiring cross-university collaboration in the field of Academic Resource Management.

The program concluded with a special segment dedicated to honouring two students (Radhika and Archana) who had utilized the library resources in the most sustainable and impactful manner throughout the year.

The event, in its entirety, was a harmonious blend of reflection and celebration and honored the enduring legacy of libraries while envisioning their evolving role in a rapidly changing world, making it an inspiring and thought-provoking experience for all present.
