PHILOSOPHY DEPARTMENT ORIENTATION FOR NEP-UGCF BATCH

2024-2028

Date - September 2, 2024

The Department of Philosophy conducted the “DEEKSHARAMBH” orientation for freshers in Room No. 12. The event commenced at 1:30 p.m. and continued for two hours, serving as an introduction to the department for the new students.

The event started with Anshika Mago, President of Philosophy Association, extending a warm welcome to all the freshers. Anshika then introduced Sakshi Malhotra, the General Secretary, who provided a general overview of the college. Following this, Palak Rai, Vice President, took over and elaborated on the college’s facilities. Then Vanshika Sehrawat, the Treasurer, gave a brief about the Department of Philosophy.

The event also featured the introduction of the esteemed faculty members and the student council leaders for the 2024-25 session. Anshika Mago and other team heads spoke about the various student-run teams, including the Editorial, Media, Sponsorship, Symposium, Organization, and Discipline teams, each detailing their responsibilities and inviting freshers to join based on their interests.

The orientation concluded with Dr. Sudnya N. Kulkarni, T.I.C of the department introducing new students to NEP and talking about UGC. The session ended at 3:30 p.m., leaving students excited and eager to engage with the department's vibrant academic and extracurricular offerings.

Philosophy department organised a session on women's rights, constitutional rights, Zero FIR and Inheritance rights to familiarise the students with their basic rights. The speaker was Pranali G Tayade- Advocate working under the standing counsel for the State of Telangana- Supreme Court.

Pranali is a graduate of NLU, Nagpur and LLM from NLU, Delhi.

The session was an interactive one where students participated in learning about their rights, the lack of safe spaces in India for women in public spaces and workplaces.

The students also discussed how gender sensitisation needs to focus on men and women.

Unless we bring about a change in the mindset of people at large the safety of women and their rights will be a challenge.

The students learnt a lot from the session.

The department organised a talk on Conservation and Development: An Ethical Challenge to familiarise the students with the environmental degradation that is slowly and steadily impacting the lives of all living beings.

The speaker advocate Shruvan Kumar Karnam explained the various laws that have been made to protect the environment in our country but hoe due to a lack of initiative on part of the implementing authorities there has been a gradual decline in the system all around.

Garbage dumps, poor town planning, improper drainage systems, e-waste, no segregation of wet and dry waste is slowly impacting our lives in an adverse manner.
