DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

The Faculty Members of the Department of English utilise various forms of ICT as part of the Teaching Learning process. Faculty members use the Smart Board to give presentations, show students various video clips, paintings and other visual material. Screenings of various films are also done. Faculty members also use Google Classroom, Emails and WhatsApp for the dissemination of further reading and critical material for self-study. Various forms of assessment utilising ICT are also encouraged. Students submit assignments and projects via Google Classroom. Students are also encouraged to give presentations utilising the Smart Board. The Language Lab software is also an integral ICT tool utilised by the department and students of various departments are encouraged to use the Language Lab to enhance their language skills.

DEPARTMENT OF EVS

The EVS department uses real-time ICT assessment tools like quizizz (<https://quizizz.com/admin>) and smart board lectures to assess the learners' awareness and progression level. The assessment is based on the live learner-centric MCQ based quiz sessions where students take part as individuals or as a team. Such assessments also promote teamwork and healthy competition among students.

Use of Smart Board

The use of a smart board in teaching provides teachers with numerous advantages in delivering lectures. The smartboard has both android and windows installed, which has the option to use numerous applications like MS PowerPoint, Excel, Word, etc. This makes it easier to deliver lectures. The smart board is also equipped with applications that make it easier to draw diagrams, import images and save lectures in the form of PDFs.

The connectivity with the internet has also made it possible to use online meeting applications like Zoom and Google Meet. The faculty members have used the smart board to conduct an online quiz competition

Please read E.H. Carr for the Group Discussion to be held on the 16th August. Dear budding historians

Please note that on 16th August, 2024, we will have a group discussion on What is History by E.H. Carr. The discussion will be marked out of 10 for your CA. Kindly make it convenient to attend.

Students will be divided into 5-6 groups and each group will be assigned a chapter for the discussion with 15-20 minutes to articulate their understanding of the text.

Since we are delving into debates, it is necessary for you to construe the basics of history.

Unit-1 Gender in context of Historical Analysis

shivam sharma • Aug 31 (Edited Sep 1)

Gerda Lerner argues that the patriarchal society has ensured that history of the 'other half' remains forgotten. What is the history of gender? Why the history of gender is significant? Can the studies of gender allow us to develop a better understanding of history? According to Joan Scott, scholars have faltered in defining gender and its origin. What is gender? How scholars define gender? How scholars have explained the origin of patriarchy? What are the gender binaries and how these binaries have tainted our understanding of history? This unit addresses these issues among others. The unit will also address the concept of sexuality, structures and forms of patriarchy and matriarchy.

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY

The Department effectively integrates ICT into various aspects of its teaching-learning process. In classrooms, ICT is utilized through smart boards that serve not only as multimedia writing tools but also as online gateways to information sourced from platforms like Google and YouTube. This enables students to view subject-related documentaries and films, as reflected in the attached documentation. Students are also encouraged to use digital media for sharing project work and delivering classroom presentations. Additionally, course materials and relevant information are conveniently provided to students through Google Classroom.
