Brief Report

The pedagogy talk was focused on comparative politics as a discipline. He elaborated on how the trajectory of discipline has changed over time, from understanding constitutions of different countries to analysing the domestic changes that led to substantial reforms like Perestroika in erstwhile USSR. He also elaborated on the availability of reading texts and similarity in the literature across countries and also the shortcomings of literature on studying China. The structural aspect of this paper has evolved from Eurocentrism to categorically looking at a comparative study among nations. However, certain topics like political culture, modernisation and development have been constant area of study.

The study needs to evolve by bringing in more localised study of domestic aspects in comparative studies. He also highlighted the classic works on studying comparative politics. It was an enriching session for faculties.

Keynote Addresses:

The session titled "Seminar on Pedagogy Methods to Teach Research Methodology" was organized by the Department of Mathematics. It began with an introduction of the principal, followed by the introduction and felicitation of the speaker, Dr. Neha Bhardwaj.

Dr. Bhardwaj started the session by posing a thought-provoking question: "What is research?" She discussed real-life examples to illustrate the significance of identifying problems systematically and finding effective solutions through research. She emphasized how research methodology fosters critical thinking, analytical reasoning, and problem-solving skills, which are essential for both faculty and students.

She further explored how pedagogical strategies can be enhanced to effectively teach research methodology (RM) to faculty members. By integrating mathematical reasoning, structured frameworks, and inquiry-based learning, educators can improve their teaching approaches and better equip students with data-driven decision-making skills. She also highlighted the role of interactive learning, case studies, and technology-driven tools in making RM pedagogy more engaging and impactful for faculty development.

Ms. Sonia, Assistant Professor, Department of Mathematics, JDMC, delivered a sincere vote of thanks, extending her appreciation to Prof. Swati Pal, the Principal, the esteemed speaker Dr. Neha Bhardwaj, Prof. Ritu Arora, T.I.C., Department of Mathematics, JDMC, as well as all participants and the organizing committee for their invaluable contributions to the seminar's success.

The participants' feedback was highly encouraging, highlighting the seminar's effectiveness in offering valuable insights, practical strategies, and an opportunity for professional engagement. The session played a pivotal role in promoting a culture of continuous learning and pedagogical enhancement within the Department of Mathematics, equipping faculty members with innovative approaches to teaching research methodology.

Academic Year	Description	Attachment	Action
2023-24	The teaching plans aim to cultivate critical thinking, effective communication, and a deep appreciation for literature and language among students. They are designed to engage learners with diverse texts, encourage analytical skills, and foster creativity through various writing forms. Further, creating a dynamic and inclusive learning environment that prepares students for academic and professional success in English studies. By focusing on critical skills and diverse perspectives, we aim to inspire a lifelong passion for literature and communication.	View Teaching Plan
2024-25	Faculty prepare detailed teaching plans each semester to ensure smooth delivery of lectures and systematic progress of the syllabus. These plans outline course objectives, weekly topics, learning outcomes, and recommended resources. They also integrate teaching methodologies, classroom activities, and assessment schedules to align with curriculum requirements.	View Teaching Plan

Subject: Successful completion of your 2nd Surveillance Audit of ISO 21001:2018 & ISO 9001:2015

Dear Madam,

On behalf of COAE International I would like to congratulate you and your team for the successful completion of your annual surveillance audit conducted on 29th January 2025 by our audit team. The audit team's recommendation for continuation of the certifications has been approved by our certification committee.

The scope of certification remains the same as the initial audit.

We hope that the JDMC will continue to maintain the high standard of educational services and an outcome-based education system in future also and will make process excellence a habit.

Regards,

Kanan Sood

Glimpses from reports and webpages of E Resource Centre

Social Brew is the official podcast platform of the Sociology Department, JDMC designed to make sociological learning interactive, creative, and enjoyable. Launched in April 2024, it has become a vibrant space for curious minds to explore society through multiple formats. The platform features movie and book reviews that connect popular culture to sociological theory, detailed discussions on key social issues, and interviews with students, faculty, and practitioners. It also includes nuanced episodes that unpack everyday experiences—relationships, routines, trends—using simple and relatable sociological insights. With 23 episodes so far, Social Brew continues to grow, encouraging critical thinking beyond the classroom.
