MENTORING SESSION for First Year Students and their Parents An Interaction with Prof Swati Pal, Principal, JDMC

The IQAC organized Mentoring Sessions for first year students and their parents on 6th Decemeber 2022, 7th December 2022 and 12th December 2022.

Each of the sessions started with a welcome address by Dr Shilpa Chaudhary, IQAC Coordinator.

Prof Swati Pal addressed the students and parents. Students were apprised about the University and college rules and regulations regarding attendance and internal assessment. Students were informed that attendance is uploaded on the college website by the seventh of every month. Medical certificates and Fitness certificates should be submitted within one week.

The Principal emphasized the importance of good behaviour and that should be reflected in maintenance of cleanliness and following the rules of the college. Students were informed about the career and internship opportunities that are actively conveyed by Career Opportunity Cell.

Prof Pal reiterated that there are more than 30 societies in the college catering to English drama, Hindi street play, classical dance, western dance, art club, finance and investment cell, debating society, MUN etc. Students were encouraged to join the societies as per their interest. Students were encouraged to join NSS. E-Cell has Project Anupam/ Incubation Program for entrepreneurship.

The college Research Centre has a Students Wing- KHOJ. The Principal apprised of student publications in recent years and encouraged them to join research projects. The college offers very useful Add-on courses. Students were informed about and encouraged to join Add-on courses. Foreign Language courses are available- German, Spanish and Chinese; Language Lab facilities can be used. Students were asked to write their names in the register if they are interested in a language.

Janki Devi Vocational Course offers several courses that students can explore. Pratibha programme invites experts to provide coaching for competitive classes at a nominal price. Students were encouraged to attend training programmes, workshops, conferences etc that societies/other departments hold.

Students were informed that the college has Recording Studio that students can also use to record and create E-resource. Students were informed about the Green practices of the college and the facilities that make the college disabled-friendly.

The college has a very efficient Grievance Redressal System. Every month SFM is held at department level. The caretakers can be contacted for building related issues. Students can approach Principal after taking an appointment. The Mentor-Mentee list will be circulated soon.

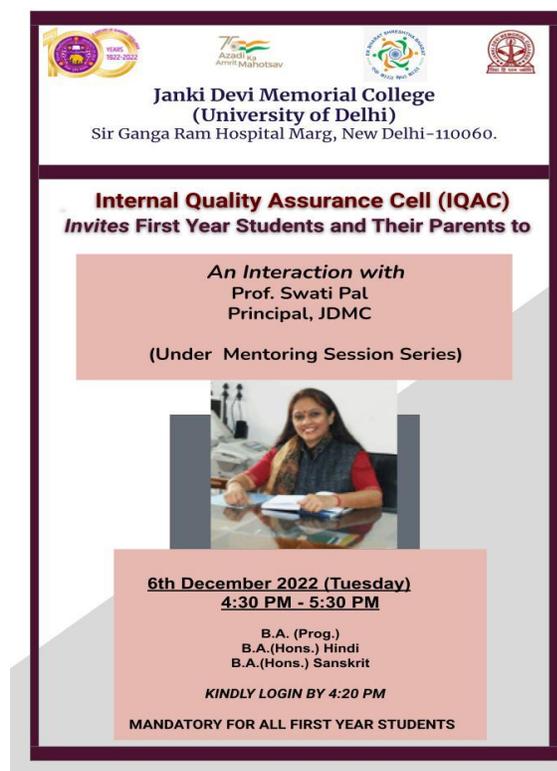

Students were informed about the availability of Counselling facilities. Sports facilities including Open Gym are also available. Self defence training is provided.

The Principal emphasized that the college listens to its students and cares for them. Parents were invited to join IQAC.

The Principal opened the house for discussion. Students sorted out several doubts and queries related to academic matters, access to sports facilities, joining of societies, Scholarship/fee assistance details etc.

The session ended with a vote of thanks to the Principal mam.
