

Report on IQAC Event on Code of Conduct

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) conducted an enlightening lecture on the Code of Conduct for teaching and non-teaching staff of Janki Devi Memorial College. The session was conducted by our resource person, Dr Jwala Prasad, Director, Gandhi Smriti & Darshan Samiti, on May 9, 2025, in an online mode using Zoom Meetings. The IQAC coordinator, Prof. Payal Nagpal, welcomed Dr Prasad. Participants gained valuable insights into the importance of ethical behaviour in personal and professional settings through a dynamic keynote address, interactive discussions, and insightful case studies. Dr Prasad's expertise and engaging delivery clarified key principles and practical strategies for effectively implementing and adhering to the ethical standards necessary to maintain a code of conduct at the University of Delhi. The event promoted a culture of integrity, accountability, and professionalism, equipping participants to navigate ethical dilemmas and uphold organisational integrity to safeguard the interests of all stakeholders. The teaching and non-teaching staff participated enthusiastically, and the organisers thank Dr Prasad and all participants for their contributions, reaffirming the IQAC's commitment to promoting ethical conduct and excellence in the institution. Ultimately, the Administrative Officer, Dr Kaushal Kishore, thanked the resource persons for their valuable time and efforts.
