Brief Report

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), Janki Devi Memorial College, organized a Workshop on Code of Ethics and Disciplinary Proceedings on 5 May 2026 for the teaching and non-teaching staff in hybrid mode. The workshop aimed to strengthen awareness of ethical standards, professional conduct, and institutional disciplinary procedures within the University framework.

The session was delivered by Mr. Somnath, Deputy Registrar (Recruitment and Promotions), University of Delhi. He elaborated on the principles of the institutional Code of Ethics, emphasizing integrity, accountability, transparency, and professionalism in academic and administrative responsibilities. He also explained the disciplinary framework, procedures for handling misconduct, and the importance of adhering to University rules and service regulations.

The workshop included an interactive discussion, during which participants sought clarification on ethical responsibilities, disciplinary procedures, and best practices for maintaining a fair and professional work environment. The resource person addressed the queries with practical examples and encouraged participants to uphold the highest standards of institutional ethics.

Overall, the workshop was informative and insightful. It enhanced participants' understanding of ethical governance and disciplinary procedures, reinforcing a culture of integrity, accountability, and professional excellence within the institution.
