Each One Plant One Campaign

14 January 2022, Friday

Janki Devi Memorial College, recently being recognised and certified by the Ministry of Education as a Swacch Campus undertook an initiative entitled 'Each One Plant One' for the welfare of the environment. The saying essentially urges all human beings to plant at least one tree in their lifetime. As a part of the initiative, the members of Students' Union and the faculty planted a tree/sapling within their households keeping in mind the pandemic restrictions. The initiative aimed at spreading awareness among the youth of today's generation to nurture the growth of nature in your neighbourhood or college campus.

Janki Devi Memorial College, in collaboration with the National Foundation for Communal Harmony (NFCH), organised an activity-based campaign from 19th November to 25th November 2021, on the observance of Communal Harmony Week and Flag Day 2021. The campaign focused at spreading awareness about the need for fostering communal harmony, national integration and fraternity. The campaign also held a donation drive throughout the observance of this week. The amount collected had been donated to the National Foundation for Communal Harmony which aims to provide financial assistance to children rendered orphan or destitute in communal caste, ethnic or terrorist violence for their education and rehabilitation under the project 'Assist'.

The week commenced with an Essay Writing Competition, which presented the students with the opportunity of presenting their thoughts on the current scenario of the nation's communal harmony and the need of national integration, that has been cooking up in their minds and providing their point of view to the kaleidoscopic mass.

The competition took place on 19th and 20th November, 2021. The topic for the same was 'Role of Youth in Communal Integration.' The competition was judged by Ms. Tannu Sharma (Department of English) and Dr. Sangeeta Gupta (Department of Hindi). The 3 winners Rudrani Borthakur (1st Prize), Himani Godara (2nd Prize) and Ritika Singla (3rd Prize) were awarded with cash prizes Rs. 500, Rs. 300 and Rs. 200 respectively. The winning entries were sent to the Ministry of National Foundation for Communal Harmony and were awarded appreciation certificates from the same.

Further on into the week, a Poster Making Competition was held 21st of November, 2021. Tapping into their creative side and presenting us with their magical art, the participants took this opportunity to showcase their skills, passion and ideas on communal harmony and national integration through the colourful world of posters.

The topic for the competition revolved around communal harmony, national integration and fraternity. This competition was judged by Kalakriti Society- The Art Club of Janki Devi Memorial College. The 3 winners announced were Archana Kumari (1st Prize-Rs. 500 Cash Prize), Lipsa Patra (2nd Prize- Rs. 300 Cash Prize) and Mahak Swarnkar (3rd Prize- Rs. 200 Cash Prize). The winning entries were sent to the Ministry of National Foundation For Communal Harmony and were awarded appreciation certificates from the same.

Under the guidance of Prof. Swati Pal (Principal of JDMC) and Dr. Debahuti Brahmachari (CTO NCC), organised an Online Declamation Competition on 22nd November, 2021 for NCC cadets. The theme for the competition was: Communal Harmony: A Step towards Peaceful Nation. Several cadets of JDMC NCC enthusiastically participated. It aimed at strengthening the diversity of India amongst the youth of the nation.

On 24th of November, 2021, a rally was taken out by the Sports Department of Janki Devi Memorial College in observance of the week's occasion. The students upholding the idea of the need for national integrity of the country, marched along the college's ground with appreciable passion and zeal.

Moving on to the next day i.e., on 24th of November, 2021, Nupur- the The Indian classical Dance Society of JDMC, added more glory to the celebrations of the week by presenting a mesmerizing dance performance. Each dance form that was enacted, represented a different aspect of harmony. The performances were a treat for the eye, and were highly enjoyed and appreciated by the audience.

The dance performance was also streamed on YouTube. The YouTube link is: <https://youtu.be/HQKeWgcqPG4>

The week's celebrations came to an end with the observance of Flag Day, on 25th of November, 2021. The Students' Union of JDMC, distributed Communal Harmony Flags among the students and collected donations from the students of Janki Devi Memorial College for the cause of Communal Harmony awareness.

The students of JDMC participated enthusiastically in the various events that were planned in accordance with the occasion.

INDEPENDENCE DAY

August 15, 2021

On 15 August 2021, Janki Devi Memorial College, University of Delhi, celebrated 75 years of India's Independence. The latter is an initiative of the Government of India to celebrate and commemorate 75 years of freedom of progressive India, on the theme 'Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav'. On this occasion, the college was full of delight to welcome the Honorable chief guest, Dr. Kusum Krishna, chairperson, college governing body. This was followed by the guard of honor ceremony by NCC cadets. After the ceremony, the speakers and the attendees stood for the 'Flag Hoisting' and 'National Anthem' as a token of their pride and respect towards the nation and the struggle for freedom.

Dr. Kusum Krishna in her address to the gathering said that it has been 74 years of our Independence and the nation has grown and developed in various ways but to ensure a beautiful, clean and peaceful India every citizen has to play their part. The leaders and the government of the country can only guide us and show our path, our collective contribution can only ensure unstoppable prosperity and development in all the fields.

Professor Swati Pal, Principal of JDMC addressed the gathering and said that the key to integrated development and prosperity of a nation is the collective consciousness of all the citizens. She said that people often demand their rights but nobody considers the set of duties it accompanies. When every citizen of the country promises to fulfill its duties, the nation is bound to excel.

The festival of 75 years of Independence is not only an endeavour to reflect the spirit of freedom struggle but also a tribute to the Martyrs. It is a pledge and resolve to build India of their dreams.

After the vote of thanks, in the end, our hearts were full of joy and Pride, "JAI HIND".

FOUNDER'S DAY CELEBRATION

July 31, 2021

Janki Devi Memorial College, University of Delhi, celebrated the 62nd Founder's Day on 31st July 2021. On this occasion, the college extended a warm welcome to the Honourable Chief Guest, Mr N.N. Vohra (President, IIC) and the Guest of Honour, Dr. Kusum Krishna, Chairperson, College Governing Body. The Founder's Day is an annual event held to remember the contributions of Shri Brij Krishan Chandiwala (Bhaiji), the eminent Gandhian, who dedicated his entire inheritance to the cause of women's education.

The event began with the auspicious lamp lighting ceremony, which was followed by a tribute to the Founder, Shri Brij Krishan Chandiwala (Bhaiji). This was followed by a beautiful rendition of the college prayer by Sarang, the Indian Classical Music Society of the college. Then, Dr. Kusum Krishna, Chairperson, Governing Body, and the Principal, Professor Swati Pal, in accordance with the college tradition of environment consciousness, planted saplings to commemorate this event.

After this, Professor Swati Pal formally welcomed the distinguished guests and everyone present. Prof. Pal thanked the Chief Guest, Mr. Vohra, the Guests of Honour, Dr Kusum Krishna and Shri Aditya Krishna. She paid rich tributes to the Founder of JDMC by talking about his dedication to the nation and devotion towards the cause of women's education. Prof. Pal explained that the most appropriate way to remember Bhaiji is to be selfless like him. She confirmed JDMC's commitment to the society and the concern for the well being of all during the pandemic. She spoke about the achievements of college during these difficult times. In spite of lockdowns and the pandemic, JDMC successfully carried out its responsibilities as an institution of higher learning by hosting the distinguished speaker series; establishment of the new centres like the Placement Cell, Research Centre, Centre for Universal Values and Ethics, Centre for Extension and Outreach Activities and Centre of Gender Equity Studies, which is coming up. She inspired everyone to continue with good work and be like Bhaiji.

Then, the Coffee Table Book, which captures the 60 years of the college, was unveiled. Prof. Pal thanked everyone who made this possible.

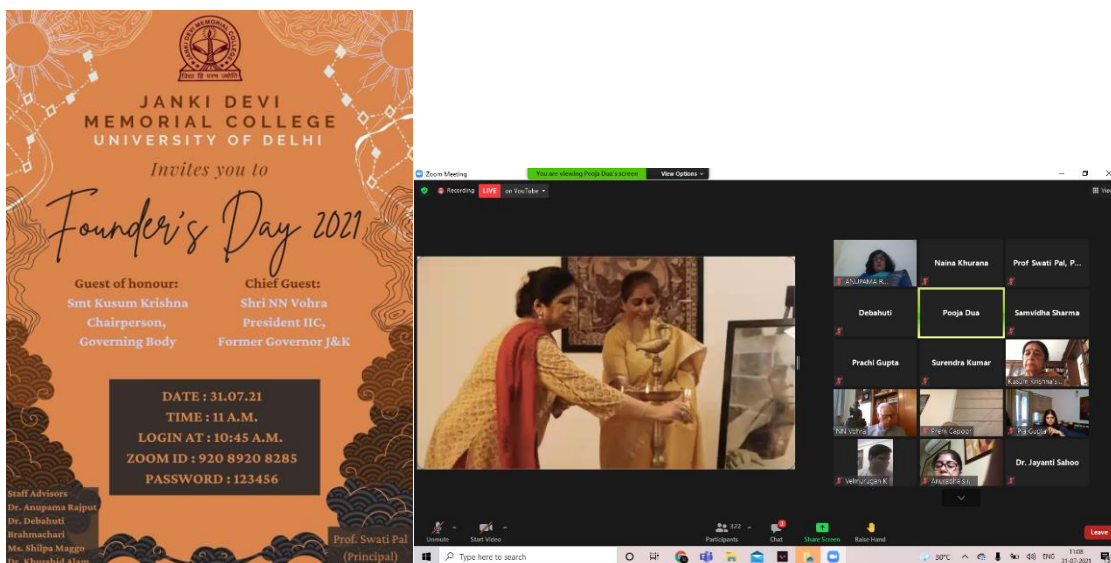

After this, Prof. Pal felicitated Professor Sandhya Garg, Vice Principal of JDMC, and Dr. Ritu Arora, Associate Professor, Department of Mathematics, for completing 25 years of service at JDMC and complimented them on their commitment to work.

Thereafter, Dr. Kusum Krishna welcomed Mr. Vohra and paid a tribute to Bhaiji. She said that education is a miracle which makes women independent and this is what Bhaiji wanted. She also congratulated the principal, the faculty, staff and students of the college for making all this possible.

This was followed by a speech by Mr. N.N Vohra, who talked about the importance of education and the changes that are taking place in the education sector at present. He said that to maintain an egalitarian society, according to the Constitution of India, basic education and literacy is very important. He asserted that institutions should focus on imparting ethical values of honesty and integrity among the students. He ended his address by thanking everyone and wishing them for a bright and successful future.

Mr. Vohra's address was followed by a beautiful dance performance by Nupur: The Classical Dance Society of the college. Then Dr. Debahuti Brahmachari delivered the vote of thanks. The event ended with the national anthem. Professor Pal thanked everyone for making this online event a success and expressed her special appreciation for the efforts of the staff Advisors Dr. Anupama Rajput, Dr. Debahuti Brahmachari, Ms. Shilpa Maggo and Dr. Khurshid Alam.
