Annual Day

Janki Devi Memorial College celebrated its 65th Annual Day on 25th April 2025. Iffat Aurooj and Dakshita Sharma, the co-hosts, warmly welcomed the distinguished guests, including Chief Guest, Dr. Arvind Gupta, Guest of Honour, Prof. Sanjoy Roy, Special Invitee, Dr. Kusum Krishna, and Principal, Prof. Swati Pal.

The ceremony began with the Lighting of the Lamp, which was accompanied with the College Prayer. This was followed by a beautiful rendition of the Kulgeet of the University of Delhi by the Music Department and Sarang, the Indian Classical Music Society of Janki Devi Memorial College. The Principal, Prof. Swati Pal, felicitated the Chief Guest , Dr. Arvind Gupta, the Guest of Honour, Prof. Sanjoy Roy, the special invitee, Dr. Kusum Krishna, and the IQAC Coordinator, Prof. Payal Nagpal. The President of Janki Devi Memorial College's Students's Union, felicitated the Principal, Prof. Swati Pal.

The Principal commenced her address with a moment of silence in respect for the victims of the Pahalgam attack. Prof. Pal presented the Annual Report of the college, wherein she highlighted the achievements of the college over the year 2024-2025. She focused on the various accolades received by the students and the faculty members of the college. Prof. Pal also celebrated the different milestones achieved in the 65th year, the Sapphire Year, of the college by highlighting the theme for the year, Tamasoma Jyotirgamaya. Prof. Pal's address was followed by the release of the Annual Report for the year 2024-25 as well as the 2024-25 edition of "JANKI," the college magazine. During the release, Prof. Pal appreciated the hardwork and dedication of both the Annual Report Committee and the Magazine Committee.

Dr. Kusum Krishna, the former Chairperson of Janki Devi Memorial College, then addressed the audience sharing her insights and experiences. She is the “last standing pillar” of the Chandiwala family, and highlighted the value of being a path breaker in various fields. She encouraged the students to go beyond the limitations that the society will impose on them by providing herself as an example of one who broke the restrictions of the society.

Dr. Krishna's address was followed by the address of the Chief Guest, Dr. Arvind Gupta, Director of Vivekananda International Foundation. Dr. Gupta was deeply impressed by the Annual Report that was presented by the Principal, and he commended the multitude of opportunities provided to the students by the college. He threw light upon the importance of education and a good character to deal with the trials and tribulations of life. Dr. Gupta also highlighted the significance of the values propagated by Swami Vivekananda.

The Guest of Honour, Prof. Sonjoy Roy, Dean, Faculty of Social Sciences and Head of Department of Social Work, also expressed his admiration of the achievements of the college. He highlighted the significance of the teacher through the example of Dronacharya and Arjuna. He emphasized the need for students to visit libraries and do sound research instead of being dependent on online sources only.

A major component of the Annual Day is the celebration of various educational and co-curricular achievements made by the students throughout the year. The vast number of achievements was born out by the fact that the prize distribution was held over three sets on the day. Nupur, the Indian Classical Dance Society, Jhankaar, the Folk Dance Society, and Anubhuti, the Dramatics Club of the college, gave spellbinding performances that delighted the hearts of the audience.

The 65th Annual Day celebration of Janki Devi Memorial College hence concluded on a note of jubilation and celebration where all the milestones achieved throughout the year were celebrated by the entire JDMC family.

Seminar on "Financial Literacy: Women's Prosperity" as part of Financial Literacy Week

Canara Bank organized a seminar at Janki Devi Memorial College on 24 February 2025, as part of Financial Literacy Week. The seminar, with the theme "Financial Literacy: Women's Prosperity", aimed to educate students on the importance of financial literacy and introduce them to several new banking schemes. Two representatives from Canara Bank were present to explain these schemes, which had only been launched the previous morning. The seminar was attended by students and faculty members who actively participated in the discussions.

The session began with a focus on financial planning, where the speakers emphasized the significance of setting clear financial goals and creating structured plans to ensure long-term financial stability. The experts also discussed effective strategies for saving and managing risk, offering insights on how women can protect their finances through diversified investments and insurance. Financial planning was highlighted as a key factor in achieving a secure and prosperous future. Additionally, the speakers introduced a new life insurance scheme where individuals can contribute a small amount, around ₹40, to the bank, and in return, the nominee would receive ₹2 lakh in case of natural death. This scheme aims to provide financial security during unfortunate circumstances.

The seminar also addressed how women can leverage credit for growth. The speakers explained various ways in which women can access credit to invest in education, start businesses, or expand their professional ventures. They emphasized the importance of understanding credit options and using them responsibly as a step toward financial independence. Moreover, the bank representatives discussed their support for student startups and how they assist with educational loans, including for studying abroad. These initiatives are designed to help students achieve their academic and entrepreneurial goals by providing the necessary financial backing. The bank also emphasized the importance of saving, mainly through the Public Provident Fund (PPF), which they highlighted as an excellent long-term savings option. The representatives reassured students that these new schemes are now available at the college branch, making it easier for students to access financial services and address any banking concerns.

Overall, the seminar was informative and engaging, shedding light on the bank’s efforts to promote financial literacy and support students in their academic and entrepreneurial pursuits.

Symphony 2025

Symphony Inaugural Ceremony

Janki Devi Memorial College inaugurated its annual college fest, Symphony '25, themed SAPPHIRE: तमसो मा ज्योतिर्गमय (Lead me from darkness to light), on February 6, 2025. The event commenced with the unveiling of the fest’s official banner by Prof. Swati Pal, Principal of the College, marking the grand opening. Following the ribbon-cutting ceremony, the esteemed guests took their seats, and Sarang, the Indian Music Society, melodiously sang the Kulgeet, followed by the College Prayer. Simultaneously, the traditional lamp-lighting ceremony was held to invoke the blessings of the Almighty for the success of the event.

The inauguration was graced by distinguished guests, including Dr. Reela Hota (Chief Guest), Mrs. Anuradha Krishna (Chairperson, Governing Body), Mr. Amittabh Reu (Guest of Honour) and Prof. Gurinder Harnam Singh (Special Invitee). Each of the esteemed guests was felicitated by Prof. Swati Pal, after which Somya Narula, the President of the College, presented a token of appreciation to Prof. Pal for her invaluable contribution and guidance. Gunjan, the Vice President, extended a token of gratitude to Prof. Sandhya Garg, the Vice Principal. Mannat Sharma, General Secretary, and Pragati Joshi, Treasurer, jointly presented a token of appreciation to Prof. Payal Nagpal, the IQAC Coordinator of the College.

The ceremony proceeded with an inspiring address by Prof. Swati Pal, which filled the audience with excitement and anticipation. This was followed by an address by Mrs. Anuradha Krishna, Chairperson of the Governing Body, who shared her insightful thoughts with the attendees. A mesmerizing classical dance performance by Nupur, the Indian Classical Dance Society, then enriched the atmosphere, enthralling the audience with its grace and cultural depth. The next speaker, Prof. Gurinder Harnam Singh, took the stage to share her wisdom with the students. Following this, the audience was treated to a dynamic and electrifying performance by Nritya, the Western Dance Society, whose contemporary dance moves added an energetic flair to the evening. Mr. Amittabh Reu, the Guest of Honour, then addressed the gathering, captivating the audience not only with his words of wisdom but also with his mesmerizing voice.

Adding to the evening's vibrancy, Euphonie, the Western Music Society, filled the auditorium with soulful melodies, blending modern and classic Western music, much to the delight of the audience. The final address of the day was delivered by Dr. Reela Hota, the Chief Guest, who expressed her pride in being part of the event and commended the college for its efforts in fostering such a vibrant cultural environment.

The event concluded with a Vote of Thanks by Somya Narula, the President, who expressed heartfelt gratitude to all dignitaries, performers, and participants for making the inauguration a grand success.

Republic Day

Janki Devi Memorial College celebrated the 76th Republic Day of India at the JDMC Triangle at 10 a.m. on 26 January 2025. The day began with an introduction of Lt. Dr. Debahuti Brahmachari, the ANO of the NCC Unit of the college, to the gathering. Dr. Brahamchari and Principal, Prof. Swati Pal, then unfurled the flag. This was accomplished in the presence of the esteemed teachers and students of the college, who paid their tribute by singing the national anthem in pride.

The impeccable and valorous NCC drill added a chivalric spirit to the event. The address by the Principal, Prof. Swati Pal, added fervor to this auspicious occasion. She highlighted that we are independent and yet slaves to the shackles of our minds. This was aimed at encouraging the youth towards patriotism and making a change in society. Dr. Brahmachari added that with or without uniforms, we must fulfill the responsibilities of a citizen and make our nation proud.

The audience, including the students and administrative staff with their enthusiasm added to the momentous occasion by expressing their opinions.

The event culminated with the NCC Unit showcasing their unity and dedication through a display of their valorous song and the function joyously concluded on a wonderful note of patriotism and nationalism.

National Youth Day Celebrations

Janki Devi Memorial College, under the aegis of IQAC, and in collaboration with National Edutrust of India, and NCC, celebrated National Youth Day on 9 January 2025, commemorating the birth anniversary of Swami Vivekananda. The event was held in the Committee Room from 11 AM onwards.

The celebration began with the felicitation of the honorable guest, Colonel (Dr.) Divakaran Padma Kumar Pillay. The esteemed guest then presented Prof. Swati Pal with the Best Principal Award, conferred by the National Edutrust of India, in recognition of her outstanding contribution and exceptional leadership in promoting environmental sustainability, skill-based education, and youth empowerment through the Skill-to-Entrepreneurship Program. Following this, Dr. Deepak Rawat was honored for his contribution as the Nodal Officer of the Skill-to-Entrepreneurship Program.

Dr. Divakaran and Prof. Swati Pal also congratulated 11 students who were honored by the National Edutrust of India for their exceptional performance in environmental sustainability, entrepreneurship, leadership, and social work. These students represented Avani, the environmental club, the Education Program, and NCC.

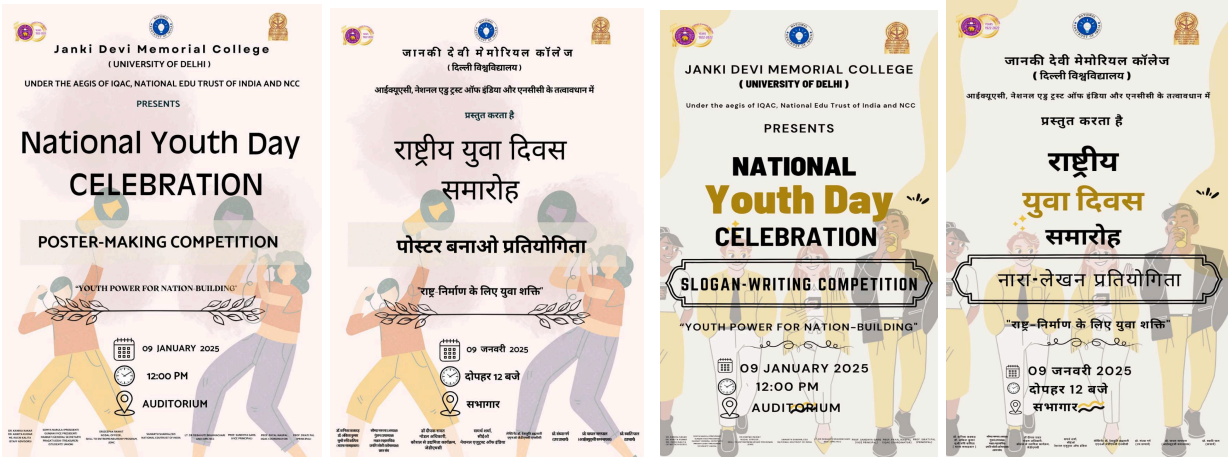

Dr. Divakaran then addressed the gathering, praising the students for upholding the vision and legacy of the college's founder, Shri Brij Kishan Chandiwala. He commended the team for their hard work and perseverance in achieving numerous accolades. Through his motivational speech, Dr. Divakaran shared examples of inspirational women and encouraged the audience to be changemakers. He also recounted his remarkable acts of valor during his postings in Kashmir and Manipur, which left the participants inspired. His bravery and dedication to the nation were celebrated by all. As part of the event, a 30-day fitness challenge was also launched.

Adding to the day's enthusiasm, a slogan-writing competition and poster-making competition were held in the auditorium at 12 PM.

The theme for the competitions, "Youth Power for Nation Building," inspired participants to express their creativity through posters and slogans, highlighting the vital role of youth in driving change and shaping the nation's future. Students conveyed their ideas with a sense of purpose and freedom, showcasing their commitment to this noble cause.

The competitions served as a heartfelt tribute to Swami Vivekananda, whose ideals and principles inspire National Youth Day. It motivated students to embrace their responsibilities as agents of change.

Information Seminar by AIESEC

On 6 November 2024, an "Information Seminar" was held by AIESEC, IIT Chapter, in collaboration with JDMC-IQAC, offering students an inspiring and informative session designed to guide them on the path to realizing their potential in today's rapidly globalizing world. The seminar was conducted by a student from B.A. Programme, a member of the AIESEC, IIT Chapter, who provided valuable insights into global opportunities for college students and emphasized the importance of leadership and self-development.

The speaker highlighted the increasing number of global opportunities available to students, particularly through academic exchange programs, internships, and scholarships. They explained how future goals are often an extension of our current aspirations, encouraging everyone to think outside the box. During this engaging session, students participated in discussions about leadership, volunteering, and the distinctions between them.

Emphasizing the interconnected nature of the world, the speaker stressed the importance of understanding global issues, such as climate change, geopolitics, and international trade, for students aiming to succeed in the global job market. A major focus of the seminar was the development of leadership skills. The speaker urged students to take initiative and assume leadership roles in both academic and extracurricular settings, noting that leadership is not solely about holding authoritative positions but also about influencing and inspiring others through action. Essential qualities such as communication, empathy, critical thinking, and decision-making were highlighted as key traits of effective leaders. The speaker underscored the power of networking and the value of building strong professional relationships.

Beyond global and leadership opportunities, the seminar emphasized the importance of continuous personal development. Advocating for a growth mindset, the speaker encouraged students to seek knowledge continuously, hone their skills, and embrace new challenges. An informative video was shared to raise awareness about the situations in developing countries, urging students to consider participating in global initiatives.

The seminar concluded with an engaging Q&A session, where students asked insightful questions about specific global programs, ways to develop leadership skills, and strategies for personal growth. Students were encouraged to reach out to the team and take the initiative to volunteer. The speaker urged students to take full advantage of the numerous opportunities available and to view education not merely as a means of acquiring knowledge but as a platform to make a meaningful impact in the world.

Met with great enthusiasm, the session provided students with a clear understanding of how to navigate global opportunities, enhance their leadership potential, and remain informed in an interconnected world. The emphasis on leadership, global awareness, and personal growth resonated strongly, motivating students to start planning their paths to success. This seminar served as a valuable reminder of the opportunities available to college students and the importance of preparing for a globalized future.

Jyotsana 2024

On October 25th, 2024, Janki Devi Memorial College, University of Delhi, hosted its much-awaited annual Diwali festival, JYOTSANA 2024, under the aegis of IQAC. The theme for this year was Utsava- A Melange of Cultures. This vibrant celebration brought together students, faculty, and guests in a spirited display of tradition, artistry, and unity, making the evening a true highlight of the season.

The event commenced with a soulful performance by Sarang, the Indian Music Society, beautifully complementing the ceremonial lighting of the lamp. This act symbolized the triumph of light over darkness and was soon followed by Diya Lighting, which set a serene and reflective tone for the festivities ahead.

The honorable dignitaries for the event were Vice Principal, Prof. Sandhya Garg, IQAC Coordinator, Prof. Payal Nagpal, our esteemed judges for various events, Ms. Pouriangthanliu, Prof. Vandana Madan, Dr. Sudnya Kulkarni, Ms. Shiwani Burnwal, and Dr. Nivedita Sharma.

The Staff Advisors and Students' Union presented a bouquet as a token of appreciation to the gathering of intellectuals for gracing the event with their presence.

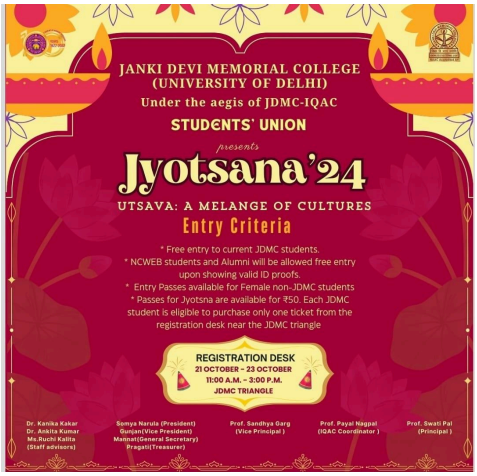

Following the felicitation, the energy was lifted with an exhilarating Cultural Showcase competition, where participants presented a unique blend of traditional and contemporary styles in line with this year's theme. The students' creativity and expressive style were fully displayed through their attire and ramp walk, making this segment one of the evening's highlights.

Jhankar, the folk dance society, then took to the stage, infusing the atmosphere with cultural richness and heritage through a captivating performance. Their rhythmic dance moves and spirited energy brought the essence of tradition to life, holding the audience's rapt attention.

Further showcasing student talent, winners of the Diya Decorating competition were honored, with judges applauding their creativity and dedication to traditional art. A fourth prize was introduced by Dr. Sudnya to encourage participation in such activities.
The cultural showcase results were then revealed, celebrating students' skill and ingenuity in fashion. Various students received titles of- Diwali Dazzle, Ms. Jyotsana, Ms. Ethnic Elegance, Ms. Confidence, and Ms. Cultural Crown.

The momentum continued with Nritya, the college's western dance society, delivering an electrifying performance. Their dynamic moves filled the hall with enthusiasm, inspiring smiles, and cheers from the audience. In addition, the Students' Union members stepped onto the runway, embodying unity, style, and resilience. Their confident display created a bond with the crowd, adding to the evening's lively and communal atmosphere.

As the event drew to a close, students took to the dance floor for a lively DJ segment, capping off the night with music and revelry. The festive energy was at its peak as everyone celebrated Diwali in the joyful company of friends and peers.

To commemorate the beginning of the new academic year for the first year students, a plantation ceremony was organised in which the first year students from various departments along with their respective Teachers in Charge participated. The Principal, Prof. Pal, also welcomed the first year students by giving them a welcome gift.

This was followed by an address given by the Principal, Prof. Swati Pal, where she gave valuable insights into the college's ethos, infrastructure, values and academic offerings. The administrative staff members were introduced, emphasizing their roles in supporting the college's administrative functions and creating a conducive learning environment. It was succeeded by the introduction of the college library by the college librarian, Dr. Nivedita Sharma, highlighting its resources, services, and the importance of utilising it for academic and personal growth.

The Medical Facilities, Counselling services as well the various courses offered in the Janki Devi Vocational Centre were introduced to the new students. This was followed by an introduction to the Teachers in Charge of the various departments, the significant college committees and the liaison officers so as to provide students with various points of contact for guidance and assistance throughout their college journey.

The first year students were also guided around the College by members of the Students' Union to show all the significant locations in the college and to give them a general idea about the layout of the college.

The Student Induction Programme provided the first year students with a comprehensive introduction to the college, its resources, and the various opportunities available to them. It laid the foundation for their successful integration into college life.

This was followed by the Department Orientations which were conducted by the various departments for their respective students in various venues across the college on 2 September 2024 at 1:30 PM. Students were introduced to the various faculty members of the department. They were also given valuable information regarding their timetables and classes as well as general information regarding the functioning of the college.

The following goals outlined by the UGC for the Student Induction Programme were fulfilled by the various sessions held by the college over various days:

Socialising: First year students were introduced to the faculty members as well as administrative staff, library staff and various significant members who are intrinsic to the functioning of the college. Students also interacted with their seniors through Peer Mentoring which helped them gain further insights into the college as well as their academic and college life.

Associating: First year students were guided around the College by their seniors so that they could familiarise themselves with the significant locations of the college as well as understand the layout of the college. This included tours of the Library, E-Resource Centre, Recording Studio, Computer Labs, Sports Amenities, Administrative Office, to name a few. Various facilities and amenities available for students were also introduced to the students.

Governing: Through the various sessions conducted within the Student Induction Programme, first year students were given a clear understanding of the rules and regulations of their individual departments as well as of the college as a whole. They were also introduced to the rules and regulations of the University of Delhi at large as well.

Experiencing: The first year students were introduced to the structure of NEP as well as the various options and electives available to them under the NEP. They were introduced to the Cluster system available to them which would allow them to explore various other options available for their academic journey. The students were also introduced to the various opportunities for co-curricular activities accessible to them so as to encourage the holistic development of the student as visualised by the NEP.

Independence Day 2024

Janki Devi Memorial College (JDMC) marked the 77th Independence Day with great fervor and patriotic spirit at the JDMC Triangle. The event was graced by the presence of Ms. Reba Pal, a distinguished guest and a respected figure in the field of education.

The celebration began with a warm welcome and introduction of the chief guest, Ms. Reba Pal. Her presence added to the significance of the day, as she has always been an inspiring figure for the JDMC family. In her address, Ms. Pal spoke about the importance of independence, women safety and the role of education in shaping a progressive nation.

Following her speech, Ms. Pal hoisted the national flag. Immediately after the flag hoisting, the entire gathering joined in the singing of the National Anthem, a moment that filled everyone with a deep sense of patriotism.

The NCC cadets of JDMC then performed an impressive drill, showcasing their discipline and dedication.

Up next as part of the celebration was the plantation drive, which was initiated right after the NCC drill. This drive was a reflection of JDMC's commitment to environmental sustainability, as students, teachers, and staff members planted saplings around the campus, symbolizing growth and a greener future.

As part of the festivities, a special segment was organized where members of the JDMC family—students, teachers, and staff—were invited to share their thoughts on what independence means to them. This interactive session was filled with heartfelt expressions and reflections on the true essence of freedom, making it a deeply engaging and reflective part of the celebration.

The day concluded with a group photograph session, and a promeuade of patriotism, and commitment to the values of independence, leaving everyone with a renewed sense of responsibility towards the nation.

It was a day that brought together the entire JDMC community in a collective expression of love for the nation and a pledge to uphold the ideals that the nation fought for.

Activities to Commemorate Independence Day 2024

Janki Devi Memorial College commemorated the 78th Independence Day in multiple ways. The celebrations began on 9 August 2024 with a Clay Pottery Painting Workshop to celebrate the culture and heritage of the country as well as to learn about the various traditions of India. The Workshop was conducted by Ms. Madhuri Verma, Coordinator, JDVC, and was held in the premises of the Janki Devi Vocational Centre. Ms. Verma introduced students to various methodologies that could be utilised to paint clay pots. This Workshop was highly beneficial for students as it taught them various techniques which were used by the students to paint 78 pots to commemorate the 78th Independence Day of India.

To further commemorate Independence Day, the Students' Union of Janki Devi Memorial College organised a series of pre-Independence Day events on 14 August 2024, which included a Poster Making Competition and an Open Mic Competition. These events were held in the Girls' Common Room and the Auditorium, respectively, and witnessed enthusiastic participation from students across various courses.

The Poster Making Competition took place in the Girls' Common Room and provided a platform for students to showcase their artistic talents while expressing their love for the nation. The themes for the competition were carefully selected to reflect the contemporary challenges and aspirations of India, including "Digital India: Bridging the Gap," "Sustainable India: A Greener Tomorrow," "Women Empowerment: Breaking Barriers," and "Atmanirbhar Bharat: Self-Reliant India."

Participants had 45 minutes to complete their posters, which were judged based on relevance to the theme, creativity, visual impact, and clarity of message. The judges for the event, Ms. Shashwitaa and Ms. Arshdeep Kaur, both esteemed alumni of the college, brought their experience and insight to evaluate the submissions.

The winners of the competition were:

1st Position: Suvasmita Dutta

2nd Position: Mehak Gupta

3rd Position: Sarita

Simultaneously, the Auditorium resonated with the voices of young India during the Open Mic Competition. The event provided a stage for students to express their thoughts, dreams, and aspirations through various forms of performance, including poetry, storytelling, comedy, and singing. The themes revolved around "Cultural Renaissance: Reviving Heritage," "Climate Crisis," "Voices of Change: Youth for a Better India," and "Heroes of Today: Modern Day Patriots."

The competition was judged by Ms. Arushi Chauhan and Ms. Radhika Gupta, whose keen understanding of culture and creativity ensured a fair and insightful evaluation of the performances. The participants captivated the audience with their originality, creativity, and engagement, making it a memorable event for all.

The winners of the Open Mic Competition were:

1st Position: Kashish Sangwan

2nd Position: Samriddhi Singh

3rd Position: Saniya Hameed

The pre-Independence Day celebrations at Janki Devi Memorial College were a resounding success, thanks to the participation of talented students and the guidance of esteemed judges. The day ended on a high note, with everyone present sharing a sense of pride and responsibility towards the future of the nation.
