Reporting Matters by the Principal

The Principal congratulated the IQAC Coordinator and the Centre for International Programmes (CIP) and shared the signing of five significant MoUs with universities in Uzbekistan. She shared the visit of a delegation to the prestigious Sherubtse College, Royal University of Bhutan, Bhutan.

Prof. Pal shared details about the establishment of a Skill Enhancement Centre in the college to offer skill-based courses to the students. These would be over and above the curriculum. Prof. Pal shared how international and national conferences had been organised for the new academic year. An international conference was organized by the Department of Economics at IHC 23-24 September 2024 and a National Conference was organized by the college WDC and the Bystander Team in collaboration with FES India on 25-26 September 2024. Prof. Pal also shared the new IQAC initiative of a Faculty Pedagogy series which was conducted successfully. Prof. Pal also shared the information regarding approval by the Governing Body for a HEFA loan to reconstruct the staff quarters and develop other infrastructure. In this regard, she shared that a HEFA committee had been constituted.

The IQAC Coordinator made a presentation and shared details about all IQAC and college activities conducted in the new session June 2024 onwards. Prof. Nagpal shared the college NIRF ranking as between 200-300. She also brought up matters related to NIRF ranking and suggested ways to improve it. She also shared information about the ongoing ISO internal audit in the college. Prof. Nagpal shared information about several IQAC initiatives conducted in the new session.

Prof. Nagpal also shared the future plans for the upcoming session. These were as follows:

- Developing a robust Skill Development Centre.
- Signing of MoU with Sherubtse College, Royal University of Bhutan, Bhutan.
- Submission of AQAR 2023-2024.
- Submission of NIRF 2025.

Suggestions by the IQAC team

- Information regarding MoUs should be disseminated.
