

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

THIS MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING is executed on this 17th day of May 2022

by and between

1. The Janki Devi Memorial College, Sir Ganga Ram Hospital Marg, New Delhi – 110060, India (hereinafter referred to as “the 1st Party”)

and

2. Women Power Connect, an NGO registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860 (hereinafter referred to as “the 2nd Party”)

(hereinafter together referred to as “the parties“)

WHEREAS THAT the 1st Party is a Women’s College under the aegis of University of Delhi offering various undergraduate, postgraduate and short-term courses and the 2nd Party is an NGO working on various issues concerning women and gender in India, including addressing gender based violence.

AND WHEREAS the parties express their interest to coordinate and collaborate in academic activities with effective and mutually beneficial cooperation, envisioning development of academic and cultural exchange, internationalise the standards of higher education and encourage direct contact between students and staff of their various faculties and institutes.

AND WHEREAS the parties by way of this Memorandum of Understanding desire to set out a framework of arrangements and to identify the scope of the collaboration in order to achieve the above objectives.

NOW THIS MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING WITNESSETH AS UNDER:

1. The scope of the co-operation and collaboration between parties shall be in following amongst various modes/forms:

- I. Collaboration on implementation of the Bystander Intervention Programme
- II. Exchange of academic materials and academic publications and information relating to VAW/G that can promote and enhance the Bystander Intervention Programme
- III. All other relevant activities of mutual interest

2. The parties hereto record that this Memorandum of Understanding reflects the broad terms of their Agreement and they agree that the themes of joint activities, the conditions for utilising the results achieved and the arrangements for specific visits, exchanges and other forms of co-operation shall be negotiated separately for each specific case by the concerned parties and shall be mutually agreed upon in writing prior to the initiation of the particular programme or activity. The Activities to be implemented shall be formally incorporated as an addendum to this Memorandum.

3. This Memorandum will be effective from the date of its execution for an initial period of five years. Any amendment to this Memorandum shall need to be in writing to become effective.

4. Either party may terminate this Memorandum by a written notice at least six months in advance of the effective date of termination. The notice shall contain the reason for the termination.

5. The Parties agree to resolution of any difference or disputes pertaining to and arising out of the arrangements contained in the Memorandum through mutual negotiations and discussions in good faith. However, in the unlikely event of an unresolved dispute that remains unresolved for more than 60 days, both parties will agree to alternative dispute resolution process like mediation and conciliation or arbitration under the Indian Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 that will be outlined in addendums to this Memorandum.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the parties hereto have hereunto set and subscribed their respective hands the day and year first hereinabove written.
