Policy on Feedback Mechanism

INTRODUCTION/PREAMBLE

Feedback is the essence of two-way communication between the provider and the receiver. Effective feedback, both positive and negative is important for continuous improvement as it helps in understanding the strengths, weaknesses, opportunities, and challenges faced by the organization. It is advantageous to the organization as well as the stakeholders as improvisations made based on the feedback received benefits all the stakeholders.

Feedback from students, employees, alumni inculcate a sense of ownership about the organization and make them feel valued and responsible. Regular feedback is important across the entire organization to remain aligned to goals. It is part of the continuous learning process for regular improvisations to serve better.

JDMC in its mission for continuous improvement in all sectors, academic or administrative has entrusted IQAC with the responsibility for arranging feedback responses from all stakeholders on quality related institutional processes.

FEEDBACK MECHANISM

JDMC has fourteen departments. For uniformity and standardization of procedures, these guidelines shall be applicable to all the departments of JDMC. Apart from this central mechanism, it is desirable that each department creates their own internal mechanisms of obtaining feedback from students and faculty members for continuous improvements in their respective faculties.

The central feedback mechanism in JDMC will include the following steps:

A) Format preparation:

The format for each type of feedback to be filled by each stakeholder shall be prepared by feedback committee under IQAC. The feedback forms to be collected electronically shall be prepared through a central email id monitored by feedback committee under IQAC. The online feedback forms can be accessed through the college website.

STAKEHOLDERS

The multiple stakeholders of the college are:

- a) Students
- b) Teachers
- c) Parents
- d) Alumni
- e) Employers

1) TYPES OF FEEDBACK

2.1 Students' feedback: The students are they are the most important stakeholders in the college. The standard format will be circulated from IQAC to the students through the TICs to understand about the teaching methods used and the learning environment during classroom teaching. This shall be collected under the supervision of the TICs with minimum of once every year. This shall be collected by students of every semester/year about the faculty members teaching in that year/semester. Feedback is sought from them in four major sections as under. The sample format is placed at Annexure I:

a) Section I: Feedback about Curriculum :The feedback about curriculum will collect students' input on all aspects of curriculum component including the course content, learning resources, learning environment, quality of delivery and assessment. It will also enquire about specific topics in the course content which the student feels should be added or deleted as per the professional scenario. This forms an integral part for any quality assurance system. This feedback shall be collected by students of every semester/year at the end of semester/year as
