

Seminar on “How to face Interview and GD” by Prof. Sangeeta Magan

The Entrepreneurship Cell organised a seminar on 24th January, 2018 for 3rd year students on how to face interviews and GDs. The seminar was delivered by Prof.Sangeeta Magan who has 25 years of experience in training and development and administration in both corporate and academic sector. Prof.Magan helped the students with what are the basic do's and dont's of an interview.

Seminar on how to face interviews and group discussion held on 24th January, 2018 delivered by Prof. Sangeeta Magan who has 25 years of experience in training and development and administration in both corporate and academic sector.

Inter College Business Plan Competition

The Inter College Business Plan Competition was held on 11th January, 2018. Out of the 93 registrations received, 15 teams were shortlisted on the basis of the executive summary of their business plan. The next and the final round included the on campus presentation of their business plan. First prize was won by Project Bawarchi which involved purchasing groceries few days before its expiration date to prepare meal and sell it at subsidised rates. Second prize was won by Project Transcit which aims on providing employment opportunities to the transgender. Third prize was won by Project We-Convert which encourages people to go green through a reward based system. Consolation prize was given to two best interjectors.

Inter College Business Plan Competition held on 11th January, 2018 judged by Mr Ashish Kumar and Dr Neeru Vasishth. Mr Ashish Kumar is Manager- Purchase at Su-Kam Solar , Social & Professional Networking Magnet, Startup Enthusiast and Environmentalist. Dr Neeru Vasishth is associate professor in commerec at Janki Devi Memorial College of Delhi University.

Visit to National Small Industries Corporation Limited

The Entrepreneurship Cell organised a visit to 'National Small Industries Corporation Limited' (NSIC), Okhla, on October 12, 2017. The main objective of NSIC is to promote and facilitate the growth of small enterprises. At the NSIC incubator center, the students got to know about different machines and how to operate them. Students were also informed about 'start-up India' and what they can avail out of various government initiatives.

Visit to National Small Industries Corporation Limited' (NSIC), Okhla, on October12, 2017. 49 students from commerce department enrolled themselves for the visit. The main objective of NSIC is to promote and facilitate the growth of small enterprises. The visit was proved to be very knowledgeable for the students.

E-Run

An interesting and fun competition, E-Run was organised on 18th and 20th Sept, 2017 which had three rounds, the first one was a pen and paper round, the second round was a rapid fire round and the third round which was a puzzle based relay race round. The students were supposed to form the puzzle with the logo, tagline and headquarter of the company.

E-Run organised on 18th and 20th Sept, 2017. The event included three rounds. In the final round, the qualified team had to solve the puzzle with the logo, tagline and headquarter of the company. The winning team of Preksha Setia, Shivangi Khanna, Tanu Sacheti and Vaishali Jain finished the final round in 14 minutes and were awarded Rs 1200 in cash.

Seminar on “Entrepreneurship” by Deepak Goel

A seminar on the entrepreneurial journey of Mr Deepak Goel was organised on 16th August 2017. Mr Deepak is a serial entrepreneur, TEDx speaker and the Founder & CEO of KarmaCircles. He provided the student with an insight of what motivated him to quit his job and become an entrepreneur. He concluded the talk by emphasising the importance of time management to increase productivity.

A seminar on the entrepreneurial journey of Mr Deepak Goel organised on 16th August 2017. Deepak is a serial entrepreneur, TEDx speaker and the Founder & CEO of KarmaCircles. The speaker was presented with a thank you card having notes written by students expressing their gratitude and views on seminar as a token of appreciation.