

ETIHAD- The MUN Society, JDMC

The Diamond Jubilee of the college witnessed the formation of the Model United Nations Society: ETIHAD. The idea was proposed by Diksha Jain, Kumari Khushboo and Jyoti Kumari of B.Com (H) IIIrd year. The society derives its name from the Arabic word 'Ittihad' meaning united and together. Etihad aims at training the students to take on the roles of delegates, speakers, and chairs, representing different countries and work in tandem with other students from diverse backgrounds to participate in discussions and reach a solution for the agenda they are assigned.

Etihad- The MUN Society of JDMC organised its first ever two days inter-college Model United Nations Conference “Majlis” on February 27-28, 2021.

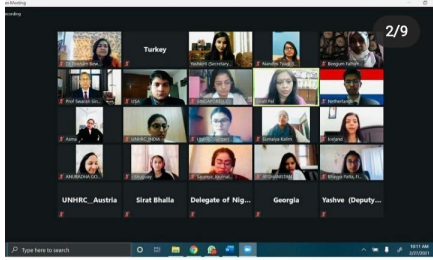

The simulation of UNHRC(United Nations Human Right Council) and AIPPM(All India Political Party Meet) was announced open on both days respectively by the General Secretary, Ms. Yashkirti.

On the first day, the UNHRC conference was organised under the agenda: Deliberating upon the covid-19 induced global food security crisis. The event was embarked by the opening speech from the chief guest Prof. Swaran Singh, the President of the Association of Asian Scholars and General Secretary of the India Congress of Asian and Pacific Services. The committee was chaired by Mr. Archit Malhotra as Chairperson and Ms. Riddhima Singh as Vice-Chairperson. Students from various colleges deliberated and debated over the issue to achieve the fruitful solutions and final conclusions. The committee witnessed a total of 42 delegates.

On the second day, the AIPPM simulation was established under the agenda, Analysis of Atma-Nirbhar Bharat Schemes. The chief guests for this committee were IAS Naveen Chandra and IAS Sumedha Kataria. IAS Naveen Chandra is an Officer on special duty to Govt of West Bengal at IAS(Government of India) and IAS Sumedha Kataria is a retired IAS Officer from Haryana. The committee was chaired by Mr. Aman Yadav as moderator and Mr. Naman Jain as deputy moderator. The committee witnessed a total of 38 active participants.

These committee sessions paved the way to some harsh insights and palpated the needs of the reality. Students were given a proper training session before the event. As a result, Etihad witnessed active participation from all the delegates. International Press also had a great significance on the event as all the minutes of the sessions and lessons were recorded by them and have been published in the ETIHAD's Newsletter. After a head-to-head conference, final results were announced on 28th February, 2021 during the closing ceremony. In the UNHRC committee, Pranit Sabharwal(delegate of Chile) won the title of Best Delegate while in the AIPPM committee, Soham Ahuja(representative of Shri. Mulayam Singh) won the title of Best Representative. Other titles such as High Commendation, Special mention, Verbal mentions were also given in both the Committees. Respective cash prizes were given to the winners.

The last day of the event concluded with the closing speech from the esteemed Principal, Prof. Swati Pal.

ENTENTE: The Intra-College MUN

Etihad- The MUN Society of JDMC organised a two days Intra-College Model United Nations Conference, Entente on January 29-30, 2021. The simulation of AIPPM(All India Political Party Meet) and UNCSW(United Nations Commission on the Status of Women) was organized on both days respectively.

On the first day, the AIPPM conference was simulated under the agenda: Discussion on freedom of speech and expression with special emphasis on sedition and UAPA and NSA. The committee was chaired by Mr. Naman Jain as moderator and Shivam Gupta as deputy moderator. The basic idea behind simulating the AIPPM committee was to expose students to the environment of policy-making, politics and government functioning. Students deliberated over the issue with an open-mind and agreed to disagree on certain topics to reach the final solutions. The committee witnessed a total of 32 delegates.

On the second day, the UNCSW simulation was established under the agenda “Women’s political, economic and social standing with special emphasis on COVID 19”. The committee was chaired by Saksham Singh as a chairperson and Zaheena Naqvi as a vice chairperson. The basic idea behind simulating UNCSW committee was to sensitize delegates to the hardships and sufferings faced by women especially during COVID-19 not just in kind but also in degree. The committee witnessed a total of 35 active participants. Students were eager to speak and raise their motions and opinions to drive the flow of the committee in the right direction and come as better leaders.

These committee sessions graveled the way to some harsh insights and stroked the dark-sides of reality. Students were given a proper training session before the event by the Research and Training team of Etihad. As a result, Etihad witnessed active participation from all the delegates. After a war of words in these conferences, final results were announced on 30th January, 2021 during the closing ceremony. In the AIPPM, Divya Garg (representative of Mr. Arvind Kejriwal) won the title of Best Representative while in the UNCSW committee, Rajasi (delegate of New Zealand) won the title of Best Delegate. Other titles such as High Commendation, Special mention, Verbal mentions were also given in both the Committees.

A Feedback session was held where students were delighted to inform that they were happy with the smooth functioning of the conference and the study material provided. The enlightened minds were excited to participate in further MUN’s and deliver their best speeches. Personal feedback was also given to the students to help them understand where they lacked and emerge as better leaders in the further MUNs.

The two days conference was came to and end with the closing speech from the Principal, Prof. Swati Pal.
