11. Webinar on ASPIRANTS - The journey ahead

On 9th March 2023, Girl up Nitara organized a webinar on ASPIRANTS - The journey ahead under the series “UDAAN - Your next flight”. The webinar took place at zoom from 5 pm onwards. The guest speaker was Mr. Vishal Choudhary, IRS (Assistant Commissioner). He is based in Baddi, Himachal Pradesh and has qualified UPSC Civil Services Examination 2020, with Commerce and Accountancy as optional subjects. He also qualified for UGC Net JRF 2019. The webinar was attended by the teacher convenors, Dr. Vibha Jain and Ms. Mansi Anand. Along with the teachers more than 100 students attended the event. The event aimed at providing guidance and to address all the queries of the students. It started with the teacher convenor, Dr. Vibha Jain’s welcome speech which was followed by the speaker’s introduction. Mr. Vishal Choudhary shared his journey and his lifetime experiences. He talked about how even after failing a few attempts he was still motivated towards his aim and also encouraged students to stay motivated in such situations. Students interacted with the speaker through their questions and reviews. He also talked about how one can opt for an optional subject and guided the students regarding the coaching institutes. This resulted in an interactive webinar where the speaker cleared all the doubts and also promised to provide his own book recommendations. The runtime of the event was around 80 minutes. Girl up Nitara received a very positive response for the event as it successfully fulfilled the expectations of the students.

10. "BIND AND BOND"- The donation drive

GIRL UP NITARA organized a donation drive "Bind and Bond" where scrap/unused pages of old notebooks were collected via donations from the JDM college students and staff, later binded to make new notebooks. These were then donated to unprivileged and needy children who can't afford it.

PHASE 1

Title: "Collecting Love
Collecting Smiles"

Tagline: If you don't ink it, donate it!

Day 1

Time: 10 am to 2pm

On 13th Feb, a team of members from Girl up Nitara put up a stall from 10am to 2pm, inviting donations of unused pages from students in the campus itself. The team worked hard in spreading the word for the donation drive by sharing the motive with the college students passing by the stall. Thereafter many students participated in this donation drive.

Day 2

Time: 10 am to 2pm

On 14th Feb the day started off with a very interesting quote "Paper dedo Roll Bind karna hai". Many students got attracted towards it and loved the way of advertisement. Through posters, online messages and notices, students got to know about donation drive and contributed for the purpose. Seeing the overwhelming response from the students it was decided to extend the Phase 1 to another day.

Day 3

Time: 10am to 2pm

On the last day of phase 1, the team was super active and team members also participated by donating the pages. Also, as a token of appreciation, the team distributed toffees and chocolates to students who donated pages. The whole process depended upon the willingness of the students on how many pages they wanted to donate. The team was polite and respectful to the students.

PHASE 2

Title: "बंधन"

Tagline: A garland of bright future for the needy

DAY 1

Time: 12pm to 2pm

Venue: GCR/Lawn

On 27th February, the team of Girl up Nitara started the work of binding the notebooks with beautiful ribbons. The teams were divided to work on different aspects. Some were arranging paper into correct sizes; some punched the sheets and others were binding it. The core team was there all the time supporting and mentoring the volunteers.

On day 1 more than 90 notebooks were made.

Day 2

Time: 12pm to 2pm

Venue: GCR

The Last day started enthusiastically and more members joined.

Convenor Ms. Mansi ma'am came there to check and praise students for their hard work. Each team member dedicated their time in making beautiful notebooks with lots of love and care.

Over 120 notebooks were made. The President of Girl up Nitara highly appreciated everyone for their help and assured the team to go on the donation drive soon.

9. Two Add-on Course called ‘Acupressure 5’ and second round of ‘Acupressure 1’

Second round of ‘Acupressure 1’ commenced on 1/December/2022.

Acupressure 5 commenced on 14/December/2022

Timing : Twice a week - 3.30pm to 5.00 pm

Girl Up Nitara under the aegis IQAC Centre for Career Counselling, Career Opportunities and Skill Development, Janki Devi Memorial College conducted two 30-hour online add-on courses called ‘Ancient Techniques of Acupressure level 5, which was in collaboration with Acupressure Shodh Prashikshan Evam Upchar Sansthan (ASPEUS).

Acupressure is a non-invasive art of treating numerous common ailments. It is an ancient art that enables you to take care of your body, reducing the fuss of running to the doctor every time.

The participants of the courses belonged to various age groups ranging from 30 years to 60 years. Classes were conducted on Google Meet with the use of presentations. These presentations along with the recordings of the lectures were shared with the students on a daily basis. Use of Google Classroom was made to share relevant videos and other study material with the participants. Practical sessions and doubt clearing sessions were conducted to resolve queries.

The course touched upon various topics in great detail like; Principles of Diagnosis, Yin Yang – concept and imbalance, Diseases related to blood and body fluids, Essence, Five Element Diagrams, Diagnosis among many others. Minute details were covered so as to enable students to locate precise pressure points. There were lessons covering right principles of diagnosis of disease. The course was an attempt to provide a glimpse of non-invasive treatment methods and spread awareness about it.

The key resource person for the courses was Prof. Ramola Madnani, Professor at Acupressure Shodh Prashikshan Evam Upchar Sansthan (ASPEUS). She did her graduation in 1979-1982 from Janki Devi Memorial College (JDMC), University of Delhi. She has also completed a one-year diploma course in interior decoration from JDMC. She has done a certificate course related to Acupressure from Gujrat Ayurveda University, Jamnagar. She initiated and has been teaching acupressure at JIMS, Rohini, New Delhi, since last two years. She has her own Therapy Centre in Mansarovar Garden, New Delhi.

Regular evaluation using online tests was also conducted to assess the understanding of participants. At the end of the course, feedback was collected from them to seek their comments for further improvement.

8. Webinar on “Introduction to Ancient Technique of Acupressure”

Girl Up Nitara, Janki Devi Memorial College, University of Delhi successfully organized a Webinar on “INTRODUCTION TO ANCIENT TECHNIQUE OF ACUPRESSURE” on November 18th, 2022 from 03:00 p.m. onwards on the Zoom platform. The purpose of the webinar was to educate all of the attendees on the Ancient Technique of Acupressure as well as the significance of Acupressure for an individual in their day-to-day lives. The resource person of the webinar, Professor Ramola Madnani, is an acupressure practitioner and educator who has worked in the field for the past quarter of a century.

She began the session with the introduction to the term Acupressure and how it involves applying gentle finger pressure, such as by pressing, massaging, or placing a bead on specific sites located on the body's meridians to cure ailments. She further explained that pressure administered is usually held for several seconds to minutes and that pressure may be applied in circular movements, pushing the acupoint in and out, or a combination. The session turned out to be very interactive with experiences shared by the ex-students of the Acupressure courses conducted by JDMC. The webinar was well attended by more than 110 participants from different age groups.

4. Let's talk about it - Mental Health Awareness Workshop

On 17th September 2022, Girl Up देवी hosted a workshop on 'Mental Health Awareness' as a part of its 'Let's talk about it' Series with around 50 students attending it. The event was conducted in view of the occasion of World Suicide Prevention Day. The speaker for the workshop was Dr. Vibha Jain. The event started with welcoming the speaker. She talked about the stigmas, taboos, and stereotypes in regard to mental health. She further discussed how stress & anxiety can contribute to poor mental health and the need to take care of our mental health. The workshop concluded with an activity wherein there was a 'Wall of Gratitude' and the participants were asked to draw/write about anything that makes them happy and grateful. A large number of students then expressed their gratitude. It was a liberating and fun activity that gave the students a platform to express themselves. The workshop made students aware of the importance of mental health and thus, was a great success.
