- Q&A 2017

The inter-collegiate quiz held during the annual cultural festival Symphony 2017 was attended by 25 teams out of which six were selected to compete for the subsequent rounds. The topic for the year was “India at a Glance”. The Preliminary round was based on interesting visuals and students had to identify them. The other five rounds ranged across themes like Sports, Fuel Efficiency, India and Foreign Affairs, and Culture and Entertainment. Another additional round called the Asit-Manimala, which has now become a regular feature of Q & A, was based on audio snippets which the teams were to correctly identify. This is a stand-alone round with a prize money of Rs. 1000/- just for this round.

First prize in the general rounds was won by Ankur Agraj (Sri Venkateshwara College) and Arpan Banerjee (Hindu College) followed by Durgesh Rai (Dyal Singh College) and Prithvi Raj (G.B. Pant Engineering College), who won the Second prize. The Third prize was won by Manas Dimri (Campus Law Centre) and Daksh Sahay (Shri Guru Gobind Singh College of Commerce).
