TABIR 2019 - THE ANNUAL ENGLISH LITERATURE FESTIVAL

Following the huge success of previous editions, TABIR 2019 received participation of students from across various universities. Every year, the festival is conducted with keeping in mind a theme that enhances creativity in the form of multiple competitive and informal events.

EXPRESS O' SELF

An intra-college annual Literary event held on 19th of September' 19, for all the freshers, to express themselves through free verse, poetry, rap or fiction. This is organised to bring out the new writers of our college together to establish a care-free literary atmosphere. This Event saw numerous participants from various courses to a huge audience. It was an open theme literary event. One by one, every student who participated, expressed themselves through various genres. This one was in collaboration with Shelfbook, who arranged a writing competition for the students. The event was followed by an open mic session.

The judges Ms. Rida Fatima and Mr. Anuj Kumar, along with our Logos convener Ms. Tara Negi decided and announced the winners. Kashvi Chandok, 1st year student of English Honours, won the first position.

SPOKEN WORD 4.0

Spoken word 4.0 was scheduled and held on 8th November, 2019.

The society organised the fourth version of its inter-college slam poetry event, Spoken Word 4.0 on 8th November, 2019 which received not just a resounding audience but equally big number of participation from across 30 different colleges. The event was judged by Aparajita Deb, a member of Pandies's Theater Group and Co-founder of Soulstuff. The event was sponsored by 'Paramount Coaching Center, Laxmi Nagar'.

An inter-college poetic performance received not just a resounding audience but equally a big number of participants who recited and sang their own pieces of writing.

Spoken word became a platform where the presenters let out their angst, insecurities, emotions, tears, smiles, fears, imaginations which the receptive audience of the college gave an equal measure of cheer applaud and a vibrant presence till the last minute.
