

Logos: The English Literary Society

Convenors: Dr. Antara Datta, Dr. Indu Jain, Mr. Anuj Kumar

A Drama and Theatre Workshop, organized on February 28, 2025. The workshop focused on key aspects of theatre, highlighting the differences between theatre and cinema. Mr. Neil, President of the Theatre Society at Kirori Mal College, led an engaging session on various theatrical components.

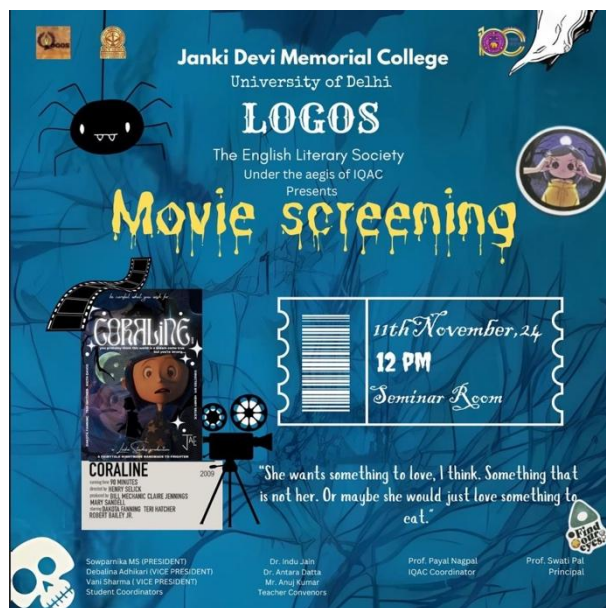

Short Story Writing Competition, organized on November 27, 2024, by Logos in collaboration with Iridescent, the Creative Writing Society, and the Centre for Gender Equity Studies. Themed 'Addressing Violence Against Women,' the event encouraged participants to voice their concerns about gender-based violence through storytelling.

Halloween Party – ‘The Haunting Hour’, organized on November 13, 2024. The event celebrated the art of storytelling and community engagement through themed activities, games, and interactive horror narratives.

Coraline Movie Screening, organized on November 11, 2024. Following the screening, a dynamic discussion explored the film's symbolism, themes of childhood fears, and the interplay between reality and fantasy.

Fictional Fan Mail, an inter-college writing competition organized on October 16, 2024. Participants were invited to write a letter to their favorite fictional character, engaging with literature in a creative and personal way.

Logos Orientation 2024, organized on September 9, 2024. Mr. Anuj Kumar, the teacher convener, welcomed students and introduced them to the society's events and activities. The President, Sowparnika, led an interactive session on the meaning of 'Logos' and its significance in literature.

