REPORT ON DONATION DRIVE
FOR THE AFFECTED PEOPLE OF MANIPUR AND SIKKIM

Event: Donation drive
Time : 10 am onwards
Date : 9th and 10th of November
Venue : near the college gate
Motive : an initiative to help the people of disaster torn states of Manipur and Sikkim

The North East Students' Group (NESG) of Janki Devi Memorial College, University of Delhi in collaboration with The North-east students' society, Delhi University had organized, with immense success, a donation drive for the people of Sikkim and Manipur. The people of Sikkim and Manipur are currently dealing with stress, as tension and anxiety engulfs the states. And for this cause all the Northeastern Societies of the entire Delhi University came together and did a donation drive with the aim of solely helping those who are in need and in a state of tension.

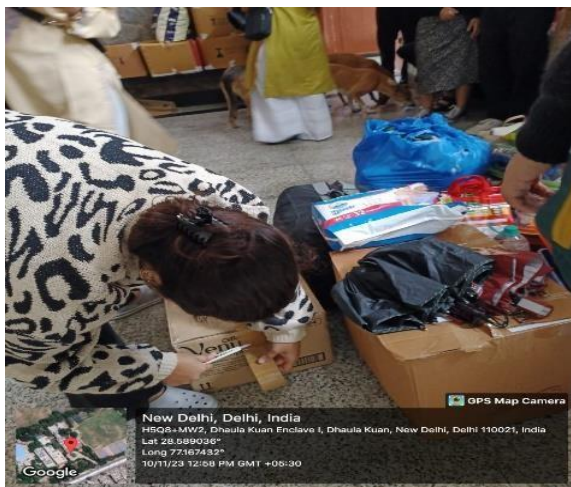

(Posters)

In Sikkim, around 87,300 people living in villages & towns are affected because of a flash flood in the Teesta River. This led to various challenges including people having to evacuate their houses, running out of livestock and hindrances to basic essential necessities. In the meanwhile, a similar chaotic and dangerous situation was happening in Manipur. People ran out of necessities in daily life, including clothes, water, and food.

The donation drive in JDMC college campus was held for 2 days, 9th and 10th of November. The poster along with the information regarding the donation desk was circulated, the previous day of the drive on WhatsApp and other social media platforms among the students and faculty of the college. The desk was set up at 10 A.M by the NESG members near the college gate with the spirit of enthusiasm and determination. Gradually, students and the teachers came to the desk with the collectibles and cash, donating to a noble cause. On the 9th, the donation drive continued till 3 P.M and considering that it was the first day, The desk collected a number of commodities that included packaged food items, clothing, sanitary napkins, basic medical items, and a good sum of cash. On the following day, the desk was set up again till 12 P.M., and after collecting all the donated items, The members of the society organized everything in different cartons and made all the necessary arrangements as the things were to be carried to Venkateswara College, University of Delhi.

It was a team of 4, namely, Raahi Deka (Vice-President, NESG), Ananya Saikia (Cultural Head, NESG), Dhanatyashree (General Secretary, NESG), Almie (CoTreasurer, NESG), Tanisha Ahmed and Sudipta. The team left the college premises at around 12:30 P.M. and reached the venue within half an hour. All the donated items were unloaded from the car carefully and under supervision of the heads and The NESSDU members that were present at the gate of Venkateswara College. Almost all the NE societies of the DU colleges were present there, with their collectibles. The NESSDU members listed the items that were brought in their memo sheet under our college name. After all the necessary proceedings that were to be done, the things were loaded in the trucks in front of the members and were carried to the Sikkim and Manipur House, from where they would be further transported to the states. A group photo along with the members of NESSDU was clicked which marks a completion of a successful donation drive by the NESG members of JDMC.

The positive efforts of The North East Students' Group and The North-east students' society, Delhi University was the reason for which such a great initiative could turn into a major event that is helping people who are really in need of assistance. The NESG, JDMC is grateful to all the people who had donated, and indeed setting up an example that the mainland of India stands with the Northeastern states at times of worry and happiness.

REPORT ON “CV AND REPORT WRITING WORKSHOP”.

Event : CV and report writing workshop
Time : 1:40 – 2:30 pm
Date : 3rd November 2023
Venue : Room no 66
Motive : an initiative to make awareness about the need for proper CVs and well written reports for better career engagement.

The North East Students’ Group (NESG) of Janki Devi Memorial College, University of Delhi had organized a “CV and Report Writing Workshop” on 3rd November 2023. The programme was inaugurated by Mr. Jyotirmoy Talukdar, Senior Writing Fellow of Ashoka University. He also writes for various publications including The Wire, OPEN, The Hindu, and Huff Post India. In 2021, he published his first book of translation. In the beginning of the session, he was felicitated by the coordinators of NESG.

He highlighted the value of creating reports and the different formats for reports and resumes. The purpose of this workshop was to give an idea about the skills of writing report and CV. The workshop was attended by many students from North east as well students from different states. Mr. Jyotirmoy Talukdar started the session with a simple question about the difference between CV and Report writing.

He spoke in a detailed manner regarding translation which became very fruitful to the students. A question answer round was also held where the students got the opportunity of clearing their doubts.

Such types of events are considered to increase the moral spirit of the students. Around 80 students were present along with the faculties of JDMC making the event a grant successful one.

Report on the seminar "Demystifying the law: A legal Awareness session".

Event : Seminar
Time : 11:45 am onwards
Date : 11th October, 2023
Venue : Room no – 66
Motive : a legal awareness session

On 11th October 2023, the Union of North-East Students' Group of Janki Devi Memorial College organized a session on the topic 'Demystifying the law: A legal Awareness session' to create a sense of consciousness amongst students about issues involving the legal system. It was held in room no. 66, on the campus itself from 11:45 am onwards. The esteemed speaker for the session was Ms. Eliza Rumthao, a Delhi University graduate, currently serving as an External Member (ICC) for a number of organizations in and around Delhi.

Ms. Rumthao with a strong legal background to her credit, has also dedicated herself to spreading awareness about issues relating to Child sexual abuse, Child labour, and Human trafficking. She has also contributed immensely to addressing matters regarding workplace harassment and child protection, by conducting workshops as well as authoring legal handbooks for the same.

In her discussions, she spoke about the significance of knowing about the legitimacy behind legal literacy in everyday life. She, while talking to the audience, tried to understand the relevance held by today's youth on law and its various spectrums. This session was undoubtedly a painting of enlightenment for all the students, curious enough to know more about the subject of discussion.

The highlight of the meeting, however, was when she reverted to her firsthand experiences as a mediator to construe the issues on hand as simply as possible, making it easier for those present to grasp.

By the end of the Seminar, Ms. Rumthao discussed the Constitution of India and the legal provisions structured for the Protection of Women in the Indian Penal Code, which was later circulated amongst all.
